New England Mutual Life Ins.,
Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843, Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting a business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be peculiarly interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties. Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

WILLARD PHILLIPS, President; B. F. STEVENS, Sec'y; CHAS. PULKER, Agent. June 13th, 1854. 41

Highly Important to Farmers.
THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST.

THE MADISON MUTUAL,
LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies. All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have a loss only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon barns, hayricks, mills, shops and such like property. In this case all such property is rejected positively, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

JANESVILLE : : : WISCONSIN.
FRIDAY MORNING, AUG. 18, 1854.

Congressional Convention—Second District.

The electors of the second congressional district of Wisconsin, comprising the counties of Rock, Green, Dane, Iowa, Lafayette, Grant, Richland, Sauk, Adams, Portage, Hamilton, Crawford, Bad Ax, La Crosse, Monroe, Polk, Pierce, Trempealeau, Elk, Chippewa, Clark, Dunn, Buffalo, St. Croix, Douglas and La Pointe, who are opposed to the Nebraska iniquity, and in favor of the principles announced in the "REPUBLICAN" platform, adopted at Madison July 18th, are invited to meet at their respective assembly districts and select two delegates from each to represent them in a congressional convention to be held at Mineral Point on Wednesday, the 19th of September, at 12 o'clock M., to nominate a candidate to be supported at the approaching election. By order of the state central committee, WM. A. WHITE, Chairman.

Madison, August 14.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.—We publish to-day the call of the central committee for a convention to be held at Mineral Point, September 19th, to nominate a candidate for congress in this congressional district, to be supported by all who oppose the Nebraska swindle. The call recommends the selection of two delegates from each assembly district. Of course, it is not to be expected that the delegation thus indicated will be full, but we hope it may be as nearly so as the circumstances of the case will possibly admit. It is important that the convention should embody the public sentiment of the entire district. The movement has commenced auspiciously, and if carried forward with the same spirit, and with the same determination that have characterized it thus far, we sincerely believe it cannot fail of success. The friends of the administration at first undertook to deride, laugh down and misrepresent the number and spirit of the Madison convention, but they have been willing to let that job out for some time past. They have found that there was too much earnestness in the movement, that it carried with it too much of the sympathy and approval of the people at large, to make any such disposal of it practicable. They also began to make some show of opposition to the leading issue presented by that convention; they have undertaken to endorse the Nebraska bill as a party measure, but they seem now to be trying to dodge the issue, and, if they can't keep still about it, to keep as still as they can. Are they to be trusted upon this question, even should they disclaim it as a party issue? Suppose they should, from motives of policy, nominate a man not committed for that measure, or if you please, committed against it, would the people of this congressional district be safe in reposing confidence in him. We think not, and we don't believe they are disposed to do it.

IOWA ELECTION.—The returns thus far from Iowa look first rate. There is always danger in placing too much confidence in the first reports of elections, but the defeat of the administration party in that state seems now pretty certain. The Dubuque Tribune of Monday has returns from twenty-five counties in which seventeen anti-Nebraska candidates are elected to the general assembly, to only eight Nebraska candidates. Seventeen counties give Thornton 977 majority over Hempstead, for congress. The Tribune says:

In every county from which we have heard, (which cast its votes against us), our opponents have dragged in some extraneous issue. On the mere naked question of the Nebraska swindle, we would have carried every county in the state, except Dubuque, in which is concentrated, and from which emanates all the local patronage of the general government.

If democracy is defeated in Iowa, as appearances indicate, we know not in what northern state that party may look for success.

A SMASH UP.—A pair of horses attached to a carriage, and belonging to Mr. Urias Story, got loose yesterday on Main street, and started to run, but soon found a dry across their path. This they jumped entirely over, and were brought up against an awning post. The carriage struck the dry about "mid-ships" and turned it and the horse attached topsy turvy in no time. No body hurt, and but little damage done.

Mr. Dockery is defeated and Mr. Badger will be re-elected. The Gazette will please stick a pin there.—Mil. News.

We will stick two into North Carolina if the News will stick one into Iowa.

ONE OF THE NATIVES.—There is a regular, live rattlesnake to be seen at the grocery store of A. K. Allen. His make-up is a native of northern Wisconsin, is seventeen years old, measures six feet in length, four inches in circumference, and has fourteen "rattles." He is entirely harmless, his poisonous teeth having been very considerably extracted. He is a great curiosity in his way, and when stirred up, gives very delightful music upon "the bones."

A STRICKEN TOWN.—The Freeport Bulletin of the 10th inst., says that since the first of July there have been 74 deaths in that town, and 50 of these were from cholera. The number of cases which recovered are not given. Freeport has a population of three or four thousand.

Attention is directed to the insurance advertisement of C. C. Cheney. He has added several new companies to his list.

DEAD!—Hon. E. Ricker, of Manitowoc, died of cholera on Friday last. He was a prominent citizen, served one term as county judge, and was a member of the legislature in 1852 and 1853. He was aged 33; emigrated to Manitowoc in 1846. He leaves a wife and two lovely daughters to mourn his loss.—Madison Argus.

SUNK AGAIN.—The repairs on the railroad were completed last evening. Before however, the eastern train arrived the track "went under" again out of sight. It is worse now than it was before.—Id.

JANESVILLE, Aug. 18th, 1854.

MR. T. BOWMAN:—In the first note addressed by me to you in the Gazette, I said I proposed to show that the Hon. David Noggle has perpetrated in the speech he delivered at Fulton, on the 4th of July last, a literary larceny.

In the extracts given from Mr. Chase's oration and my own, I think it will be apparent to you that he has done so. He claims (it is said) that the oration delivered upon the occasion when you were president of the day, had been pronounced by him at Beloit in 1840. This may be so; but is it not a strange coincidence that a gentleman residing in New York should filch from another in the then territory of Wisconsin, a fourth of July oration? And taking into consideration the fact that he has plagiarized from so humble an individual as myself, is it not fair to presume that the speech delivered at your place was an emanation from the brain of another, even though Mr. Chase may have stolen his address from some other gentleman? It is said in the streets, and confidently averred, that at the time when Mr. Noggle delivered his address in Beloit, in 1840, which he claims is substantially the same, as addressed to your people, it was then known that that address was not his own production. For the truth of this assertion I will not now vouch. But if the fact can be ascertained hereafter, you, and those before whom it was delivered, shall be advised of the larceny.

But, Mr. Bowman, how will Mr. Noggle account for having filched from me? Will he say that we both have taken our thoughts and language from another? If he does, will it not place him as an orator and a gentleman in a very unenviable position? And without intending to be egotistical or boastful, I simply wish to say that I defy Mr. Noggle, or any other man, to produce any speech or oration from which I have taken that portion of his address which he has taken from mine. The thoughts therein contained perhaps are not new; but the language is my own. The extracts are placed side by side with each other, and you, or any other gentleman, cannot fail to perceive that most of the sentences are almost precisely identical.

I do not wish to abuse Mr. Noggle, but I merely wish to establish the proposition first made, that he had committed a literary larceny. To you and the community at large I leave the issue and ask your judgment.

Personally, I am unacquainted with you, and have addressed you simply because you were the president of the day on the occasion upon which Mr. Noggle's oration was delivered.

I ask your pardon for the liberty I have taken, and beg you to understand that the words "fervid eloquence," which I used in my first note, do not apply to any thing which Mr. Noggle has stolen from me.

Very respectfully,
JAMES ARMSTRONG.

P. S. Since the above was written, I have taken from the Wisconsin, published at Milwaukee, and of the date of Aug. 16th, 1854, the following article:

A DOUBLE PLAGIARISM.—The Janesville Gazette publishes a communication placing side by side, portions of the fourth of July oration of R. C. R. Chase, delivered at Jay, and published in the Elizabethtown, Essex county, N. Y. Post, August 14, 1853, and that of David Noggle, delivered at Fulton, Rock county, Wisconsin, on the 4th of July, 1854, by which the latter gentleman is convicted of plagiarism, to a great extent. But this is not the best of the joke. The very oration of Mr. Chase, from which Mr. Noggle draws so liberally, is substantially the great oration delivered by Silas Wright, at Canton, N. Y., several years since. A friend recognizes the ideas, and in most places, the precise words of the great statesman, as pronounced by him and subsequently published; although he is sorry to see in many places, a shocking mutilation of the grand ideas and charming style of Mr. Wright, to cover up the slovenly track of Mr. Chase.

I have also seen a copy of the Rockford Star of 1840 in which that part of this speech which I have quoted, was published, and upon examining the files of "The Janesville Gazette," (if you have the curiosity to do so) you will find the same portion in a number of that paper dated August 1st, 1846, and again you find it in the Free Press of July 18th, A. D. 1854.

Even admitting it was his own production, what a precious prodigy, in his own estimation, it must have been—how paternally he must have hugged it to his bosom and kept it by his side—and how self-sacrificing he must have been to give it to the gaze of the world three times within the last fourteen years and within a circumference of thirty miles.

Should he hereafter have occasion to again favor the public with its republication, I would suggest that he save himself the trouble of re-writing it and the printers the annoyance of studying over a bungling manuscript by furnishing a printed copy. J. A.

THE MISSOURI LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature is still in doubt. It is probable however that in point of numbers the whigs will be first, anti-Benton next, and Benton democrats last. One thing is certain that the Benton democrats will hold the balance of power, and A. C. Bates cannot be re-elected. Edward Bates is, and was opposed to a repeal of the Missouri compromise, and it is possible that he may be returned by Benton's friends in conjunction with liberal whigs.—Wisconsin.

MILLER'S STEAM BRIDGE.—The name of an invention recently applied to railroad cars. On the Pontiac road, it stopped a train running 30 miles an hour, in 18 seconds, in a distance of 560 feet, the engine not being reversed! It consists of an iron steam-pipe under the cars, the connections between the cars being made with pipes of gutta percha. The railroad men think it practicable.

A PRISONER FOR DEBT FOR THIRTY-NINE YEARS.—A man named William Miller was imprisoned in Winchester, England, jail thirty-nine years ago, since which time he remained closely immured, spending the last three years and eight months in solitary confinement. His only crime was a debt of $600.

Assessors of the several towns are referred to the session laws of 1854, sec. 2, chap. 13, page 89, which reads as follows:

"It shall be the duty of the assessor, or assessors, authorized by law, to assess taxableness property for state, county and town purposes, in each town or in each ward, or city, or incorporated village in this state, to furnish to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county in which such town, city or incorporated village may be, on or before the first day of August in each year, the original assessment roll complete, on real and personal property in said town, ward, city, or incorporated village, as made by said assessor or assessors, for the year in which such assessment is made. If such assessor shall fail or refuse to furnish such assessment roll as above provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in a sum not less than ten, nor more than fifty dollars."

As the laws were not to be seen till about the first of August, we presume no fine will be exacted for any failure or refusal to comply with the legal requirements.—Grant County Herald.

We don't know as this matter possesses any interest for any body in this county, but if it does we publish it for their information.

The Free Democrat says it is informed that the Milwaukee and Watertown railroad "has violated the contract with Bishop, Stewart & Co., and thus have refused themselves to go on with the contract. The company are in arrears, we understand, to Bishop, Stewart & Co., two estimates."

THE GREAT DROUGHT OF '54.—The New York Tribune estimates the loss by the present great drought which is afflicting this country, at one hundred millions, and the loss of New York state alone, at twenty millions. One hundred millions is probably a low estimate for the whole country. Every day brings intelligence of the extent of the drought, which is much greater than is generally supposed. Some few localities have been visited with rains, but they have produced but little beneficial effect, owing to the absence of dews, and the dryness of the atmosphere. Food will be scarce and dear in this country for a year to come, and it becomes all persons to husband their resources, and practice rigid economy. Our country is so wide, and our resources so great, that there will be no absolute want, no famine, but prices will rule high, and the poor will need more than ever the sustaining hand of charity.—Chicago Dem.

MISSOURI MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.—John G. Miller and Gilchrist Porter, Luther M. Kennett, M. Oliver, Sam Caruthers and J. G. Lindsey—all whigs—are re-elected. They all belong to the slavery-extending school of the whig party.—Wisconsin of Saturday.

No they don't. Mr. Porter, for one, took hold and open ground against the Nebraska iniquity, so much so that the Anzeiger, the German organ in St. Louis, urged every German democrat in his district to vote for Mr. Porter as a "freeminded man, in favor of the cause of progress, and strongly opposed to the Nebraska bill."

Mr. Lindsey, if we mistake not, agrees in sentiment with Mr. Porter.—Mil. Sent.

A party of ladies and gentlemen, while riding out in Roxbury (Mass.) in direction of Dorchester on Friday last, took a cross road and came upon the borders of a small pond surrounded by trees. A large Newfoundland dog belonging to one of the gentlemen, could not resist the inviting coolness of the water, and plunged in. After swimming about for some time, enjoying himself hugely, he stopped suddenly at a particular spot; from that he began to swim round and round, making a circle smaller, when he dived beneath the surface, reappearing, however, speedily, bearing in his mouth the naked body of an infant. Swimming ashore with his prize, he shook himself to free the superfluous water from his shaggy front. The shaking separated the head of the infant from the body, and it immediately sunk; the headless trunk was brought ashore, and laid carefully on the grass. The ladies were much excited, and one in particular, was excessively agitated. The body was in an advanced state of decomposition.—The affair is a mysterious one.

RUSSIAN FORTRESSES.—Admiral Napier has written home that neither Cronstadt nor Sveaborg can be taken with the most powerful fleet ever gathered together. He says:

"It has not been in my power to do anything with this powerful fleet, but attacking either Cronstadt or Sveaborg, would have been certain destruction."

Vice Admiral Chads, also writes:

"After two days' inspections from the light-house, and full views of the forts and ships, the former are too substantial for the fire of ships to make any impression. They are like masses of granite. With respect to an attack on the ships (Russians) where they are, it is not to be entertained."

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—Our attention has been called by the teller of Commercial Bank, to a dangerous counterfeit which has just made its appearance, on the Oneida Valley Bank. It is a five dollar bill, paper rather thin and flimsy, and though the engraving is very fairly done, there is rather a pale appearance to the bill.—The coat of arms of the state of New York, on the upper left hand corner, on close examination will be found to be imperfect. The imprint of Rawdon, Wright, Hatch & Edson, New York, will also be found not to be regular and straight. Persons will do well to refuse all fives on this bank unless they are familiar with the genuine.—Chicago Democrat, Monday.

We learn just as our paper goes to press, this morning, that during the thunder shower of last Friday night a man named Merchant, residing a mile south of Winnebago station, and four of his children were killed instantly by a stroke of lightning. The father, mother, and five children (comprising the whole family) were lying upon the floor in a bed together, and the mother and one child only escaped alive. This was truly a terrible visitation.—Rockford Democrat, Thursday.

RAISING THE ERIE.—The remnant of the hull of the steamer Erie, burned off Silver creek, thirteen years ago on Thursday last, was towed into port last evening. The engine and valves found on board had been previously removed. She is the hardest wreck we ever saw, and can be of no use, unless it be for the iron that holds her together. Rumor says that some $1500 in silver coin was found, besides a large quantity of gold, silver and copper in a melted state.—Buf. Rep., 12th.

We are informed that the cholera is prevailing at the present time to a very considerable extent, in our sister city of Racine. Whilst we have been suffering heretofore, Racine has been in a measure exempt; but the deadly infection, it appears, is disposed to show no partiality.—We have heard of no cases in our city for a number of days past, and we trust have heard the last of it for this season, at least.—Kenosha Tel.

WHAT THE NORTH MUST NEXT SUBMIT TO.

The southern papers are agitating the question of re-opening the external slave trade. Their chief arguments are as follows: The Germans and Irish are flooding the northern states; they are little better, wiser or more patriotic than negroes; to balance their influence and power, the slave states must also import laborers to offset the German and Irish emigrants who do not settle among slaves. They argue the inconsistency of contending for slavery as a divine, benevolent and republican institution, yet live under a law of congress making it piracy to import slaves from Africa. They go into long arguments to prove that the north is hastening into anarchy by reason of the laboring masses having control of the ballot box; that we are a set of incendiaries having our ranks constantly recruited by the rabble of Europe, to whom exciting appeals are made in the name of liberty.

It is ceaselessly contended by those who affect to be disatisfied with the late acts of congress, yet cry for peace and acquiescence, that "this is the last surrender;" they are going to make the south—never will they submit again, &c.—Now here is another negro question grinding through the fence in the shape of re-opening the external slave trade. That may be shored through, and a new dissatisfaction will follow; then the dough-faces will blubber again and mutter "peace and submission." Then Cuba annexation, South America, and the Mosquito Kingdom! what else God knows. Still "peace and submission!" Never by the eternal can the high-spirited, honorable man more proclaim "peace and submission." "Repeal" is the word. Demagogues, it is expected, will be for peace.—They would submit to the Spanish inquisition.—We once submitted to the yoke—the fugitive slave law, and urged "peace and submission." It was the last, and we have repeated a thousand times we ever swallowed that infamous morsel.

Upon the opening of the external slave trade, negroes will be huddled into the United States, as if Africa had swallowed all the quack doctors and cathartic pills in America. Negroes will be imported for every kind of use, even for making sausages and working in harness. All the while this importation of animal locomotion of doubtful race, as to whether man or beast, is going on, we are to be frightened into "peace and submission." That old charge, abolition—the standing panacea to coerce submission to every wrong, will be dosed out freely. Fools will deal freely in the nostrum, cowards will quail and brave men will resent like spoiled children.—Grant County Herald.

PARTY VS. PRINCIPLE.—The last number of the La Crosse Democrat devotes nearly two columns to showing the evil which will result from "democrats" leaving their old party for the sake of principle at the coming election. It begins thus:

"The coming election is an important one to the democratic party; not perhaps so much with regard to new issues involved, as rather as a test of the strength and vitality of the party."

We would prefer a test of the strength of principle. The strength of democracy has been sufficiently tested. We have seen that in proportion as it goes strong virtue, public faith, patriotism has grown weak. Corruption has grown fat and rampant. The people and their interests have been disregarded, and "democracy" has become equal to the task of electing "Barstow and the balance" in Wisconsin. And of passing Nebraska bills in Congress. This may not be the fault of the particular party, so much as it is the fault of all parties that are long enough in power to become corrupt. We venture to say that no party was ever organized but what would in the course of time, by long continuance in power, by the consciousness of strength, and that it could carry whatever measures it should please, become an oppressive and intolerable weight upon the people. Barges always go over to the winning side. After a few triumphs, the trimmer join the victorious party. Such is the present condition of the democratic party.—Such will be the position of every party after so long a period of success. The only safety for the people is in an occasional change. They are becoming convinced of this, and the hoary humbug of "democracy" must be checked. It must pass through the purifying ordeal of defeat for a few years, before it can again become entitled to public confidence.—Madison Journal.

KANSAS.—At a recent meeting in the city of New York for the formation of an emigration "league," Mr. Eli Thayer gave a detailed account of the "Emigrant Aid Company." In the course of his remarks he stated that in spite of all the accounts that have been circulated to the contrary, not a single slaveholder in Missouri has yet moved his slaves into Kansas. None had, as yet, had more than sufficient courage to stake out their claims. By the first of September, Mr. Thayer also stated, more than a thousand men, under the protection of the society, would be on their way to Kansas, to be followed until navigation closed by others in their track. These emigrants coming from free States would soon be there in sufficient numbers to control the states and keep a free territory. The company are now locating two cities, the situation of which will be made known in a few days, and will afford a favorable opportunity for the investment of capital.—Boston Atlas.

Those who talk of non-intervention for the purpose of freeing the administration from guilt in legislating slavery into Nebraska and Kansas by tearing away the Missouri compromise obstruction, are replied to as follows by the Syracuse Chronicle:

"When a farmer orders the fence taken down between his hog yard and corn field, he does not order the hogs into the corn—oh, no!"

By the way, why cannot the eastern mail be despatched from Madison by the morning instead of the evening train.—Sentinel.

We learn from the postmaster here that there is yet no contract for carrying the mails at all between here and Milwaukee. Whenever the contract is completed, or now, he will deliver the mails as they are called for. The railroad company ought to send for them so that they can go in the morning train. It would bring us 12 hours nearer Milwaukee. Our paper issued this afternoon does not get to Milwaukee till tomorrow evening, whereas they ought to get there to-morrow morning.—Madison Argus.

We took a turn round the country a few days ago, to see how the husbandman was progressing with his labors, and found them reaping an abundant harvest from their labors of the past year. All kinds of grain are better than common and have been secured in good order. All the hue and cry of loss by wind and flood was mostly imaginary. What particularly attracted our attention was some splendid orchards, in which were many trees loaded with fruit. One orchard that we noticed was a model of neatness and thrift.—Platteville American.

EATING TAINTED MEAT.—A family of Belgians, three miles east of Green Bay, lost five of their number, by a disease resembling cholera. The Advocate says it was brought on by eating tainted meat, and that the whole five died within 24 hours after partaking of it.

JANESVILLE : : : WISCONSIN.
FRIDAY MORNING, AUG. 18, 1854.

Congressional Convention—Second District.

The electors of the second congressional district of Wisconsin, comprising the counties of Rock, Green, Dodge, Iowa, Lafayette, Grant, Richland, Sauk, Adams, Portage, Marathon, Crawford, Bad Ax, La Crosse, Monroe, Polk, Pierce, Trempealeau, Elk, Chippewa, Clark, Dunn, Buffalo, St. Croix, Douglas and La Pointe, who are opposed to the Nebraska inquiry, and in favor of the principles announced in the "EXPOSURE" platform, adopted at Madison July 18th, are invited to meet in their respective assembly districts and select two delegates from each to represent them in a congressional convention to be held at Mineral Point on Wednesday, the 18th of September, at 12 o'clock M., to nominate a candidate to be supported at the approaching election. By order of the state central committee, WM. A. WHITE, Chairman.

Madison, August 14.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.—We publish to-day the call of the central committee for a convention to be held at Mineral Point, September 18th, to nominate a candidate for congress in this congressional district, to be supported by all who oppose the Nebraska swindle. The call recommends the selection of two delegates from each assembly district. Of course, it is not to be expected that the delegation thus indicated will be full, but we hope it may be as nearly so as the circumstances of the case will possibly admit. It is important that the convention should embody the public sentiment of the entire district. The movement has commenced auspiciously, and if carried forward with the same spirit, and with the same determination that have characterized it thus far, we sincerely believe it cannot fail of success. The friends of the administration at first undertook to deride, laugh down and misrepresent the number and spirit of the Madison convention, but they have been willing to let that job out for some time past. They have found that there was too much earnestness in the movement, that it carried with it too much of the sympathy and approval of the people at large, to make any such disposal of it practicable. They also began to make some show of opposition to the leading issue presented by that convention; they have undertaken to endorse the Nebraska bill as a party measure, but they seem now to be trying to dodge the issue, and, if they can't keep still about it, to keep as still as they can. Are they to be trusted upon this question, even should they disclaim it as a party issue? Suppose they should, from motives of policy, nominate a man not committed for that measure, or if you please, committed against it, would the people of this congressional district be safe in reposing confidence in him. We think not, and we don't believe they are disposed to do it.

IOWA ELECTION.—The returns thus far from Iowa look first rate. There is always danger in placing too much confidence in the first reports of elections, but the defeat of the administration party in that state seems now pretty certain. The Dubuque Tribune of Monday has returns from twenty-five counties in which seventeen anti-Nebraska candidates are elected to the general assembly, to only eight Nebraska candidates. Seventeen counties give Thornton 977 majority over Hempstead, for congress. The Tribune says:

In every county from which we have heard, (which cast its votes against us), our opponents have dragged in some extraneous issue. On the mere naked question of the Nebraska swindle, we would have carried every county in the state, except Dubuque, in which is concentrated, and from which emanates all the local patronage of the general government.

If democracy is defeated in Iowa, as appearances indicate, we know not in what northern state that party may look for success.

A SMASH UP.—A pair of horses attached to a carriage, and belonging to Mr. Urias Story, got loose yesterday on Main street, and started to run, but soon found a dry across their path. This they jumped entirely over, and were brought up against an awning post. The carriage struck the dry about "midships" and turned it and the horse attached took a turn in no time. No body hurt, and but little damage done.

Mr. Dockery is defeated and Mr. Badger will be re-elected. The Gazette will please stick a pin there.—Mil. News.

We will stick two into North Carolina if the News will stick one into Iowa.

ONE OF THE NATIVES.—There is a regular, live rattlesnake to be seen at the grocery store of A. K. Allen. His snakeship is a native of northern Wisconsin, is seventeen years old, measures six feet in length, four inches in circumference, and has fourteen "rattles." He is entirely harmless, his poisonous teeth having been very considerably extracted. He is a great curiosity in his way, and when stirred up, gives very delightful music upon "the bones."

A STRICKEN TOWN.—The Freeport Bulletin of the 10th inst., says that since the first of July there have been 74 deaths in that town, and 50 of these were from cholera. The number of cases which recovered are not given. Freeport has a population of three or four thousand.

Attention is directed to the insurance advertisement of C. C. Cheney. He has added several new companies to his list.

DEAD!—Hon. E. Ricker, of Manitowoc, died of cholera on Friday last. He was a prominent citizen, served one term as county judge, and was a member of the legislature in 1852 and 1853. He was aged 33; emigrated to Manitowoc in 1846. He leaves a wife and two lovely daughters to mourn his loss.—Madison Argus, 15th.

SUNK AGAIN.—The repairs on the railroad were completed last evening. Before however, the eastern train arrived the track "went under" again out of sight. It is worse now than it was before.—Id.

JANESVILLE, Aug. 18th, 1854.

MR. T. BOWMAN:

DEAR SIR:—In the first note addressed by me to you in the Gazette, I said I proposed to show that the Hon. David Noggle has perpetrated in the speech he delivered at Fulton, on the 4th of July last, a literary larceny.

In the extracts given from Mr. Chase's oration and my own, I think it will be apparent to you that he has done so. He claims (it is said) that the oration delivered upon the occasion when you were president of the day, had been pronounced by him at Beloit in 1840. This may be so; but is it not a strange coincidence that a gentleman residing in New York should filch from another in the then territory of Wisconsin, a fourth of July oration? And taking into consideration the fact that he has plagiarized from so humble an individual as myself, is it not fair to presume that the speech delivered at your place was an emanation from the brain of another, even though Mr. Chase may have stolen his address from some other gentleman? It is said in the streets, and confidently averred, that at the time when Mr. Noggle delivered his address in Beloit, in 1840, which he claims is substantially the same, as addressed to your people, it was then known that that address was not his own production. For the truth of this assertion I will not now vouch. But if the fact can be ascertained hereafter, you, and those before whom it was delivered, shall be advised of the larceny.

But, Mr. Bowman, how will Mr. Noggle account for having filched from me? Will he say that we both have taken our thoughts and language from another? If he does, will it not place him as an orator and a gentleman in a very unenviable position? And without intending to be egotistical or boastful, I simply wish to say that I defy Mr. Noggle, or any other man, to produce any speech or oration from which I have taken that portion of his address which he has taken from mine. The thoughts therein contained perhaps are not new; but the language is my own. The extracts are placed side by side with each other, and you, or any other gentleman, cannot fail to perceive that most of the sentences are almost precisely identical.

I do not wish to abuse Mr. Noggle, but I merely wish to establish the proposition first made, that he had committed a literary larceny. To you and the community at large I leave the issue and ask your judgment.

Personally, I am unacquainted with you, and have addressed you simply because you were the president of the day on the occasion upon which Mr. Noggle's oration was delivered.

I ask your pardon for the liberty I have taken, and beg you to understand that the words "fervid eloquence," which I used in my first note, do not apply to any thing which Mr. Noggle has stolen from me.

Very respectfully,

JAMES ARMSTRONG.

P. S. Since the above was written, I have taken from the Wisconsin, published at Milwaukee, and of the date of Aug. 16th, 1854, the following article:

"A DOUBLE PLAGIARISM.—The Janesville Gazette publishes a communication placing side by side, portions of the fourth of July oration of R. C. B. Chase, delivered at Jay, and published in the Elizabethtown, Essex county, N. Y. Post, August 14, 1853, and that of David Noggle, delivered at Fulton, Rock county, Wisconsin, on the 4th of July, 1854, by which the latter gentleman is convicted of plagiarism, to a great extent. But this is not the best of the joke. The very oration of Mr. Chase, from which Mr. Noggle draws so liberally, is substantially the great oration delivered by Silas Wright, at Canton, N. Y., several years since. A friend recognizes the ideas, and in most places, the precise words of the great statesman, as pronounced by him and subsequently published; although he is sorry to see in many places, a shocking mutilation of the grand ideas and charming style of Mr. Wright, to cover up the slovenly track of Mr. Chase."

I have also seen a copy of the Rockford Star of 1840 in which that part of this speech which I have quoted, was published, and upon examining the files of "The Janesville Gazette," (if you have the curiosity to do so) you will find the same portion in a number of that paper dated August 1st, 1846, and again you find it in the Free Press of July 18th, A. D. 1854.

Even admitting it was his own production, what a precious prodigy, in his own estimation, it must have been—how paternally he must have hugged it to his bosom and kept it by his side—and how self-sacrificing he must have been to give it to the gaze of the world three times within the last fourteen years and within a circumference of thirty miles.

Should he hereafter have occasion to again favor the public with its republication, I would suggest that he save himself the trouble of rewriting it and the printers the annoyance of studying over a bungling manuscript by furnishing a printed copy.

J. A.

THE MISSOURI LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature is still in doubt. It is probable however that in point of numbers the whigs will be first, anti-Benton next, and Benton democrats last. One thing is certain that the Benton democrats will hold the balance of power, and Ate cannot be re-elected. Edward Bates is not opposed to a repeal of the Missouri compromise, and it is possible that he may be returned by Benton's friends in conjunction with liberal whigs. Wisconsin.

MILLER'S STEAM BRIDGE.—The name of an invention recently applied to railroad cars. On the Pontiac road, it stopped a train running 30 miles an hour, in 18 seconds, in a distance of 560 feet, the engine not being reversed! It consists of an iron steam-pipe under the cars, the connections between the cars being made with pipes of gutta percha. The railroad men think it practicable.

A PRISONER FOR DEBT FOR THIRTY-NINE YEARS.—A man named William Miller was imprisoned in Winchester, England, last thirty-nine years ago, since which time he remained closely immured, spending the last three years and eight months in solitary confinement. His only crime was a debt of $600.

Assessors of the several towns are referred to the session laws of 1854, sec. 2, chap. 13, page 89, which reads as follows:

"It shall be the duty of the assessor, or assessors, authorized by law, to assess, or cause to be assessed, the property for state, county and town purposes, in each town or in each ward, or city, or incorporated village in this state, to furnish to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county in which such town, city or incorporated village may be, on or before the first day of August in each year, the original assessment roll, complete, on real and personal property in said town, ward, city, or incorporated village, as made by said assessor or assessors, for the year in which such assessment is made. If such assessor shall fail or refuse to furnish such assessment roll as above provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable in a sum not less than ten, nor more than fifty dollars."

As the laws were not to be seen till about the first of August, we presume no fine will be exacted for any failure or refusal to comply with the legal requirements.—Grant County Herald.

We don't know as this matter possesses any interest for any body in this county, but if it does we publish it for their information.

The Free Democrat says it is informed that the Milwaukee and Watertown railroad "has violated the contract with Bishop, Stewart & Co., and thus have refused themselves to go on with the contract. The company are in arrears, we understand, to Bishop, Stewart & Co., two estimates."

THE GREAT DROUGHT OF '54.—The New York Tribune estimates the loss by the present great drought which is afflicting this country, at one hundred millions, and the loss of New York state alone, at twenty millions. One hundred millions is probably a low estimate for the whole country. Every day brings intelligence of the extent of the drought, which is much greater than is generally supposed. Some few localities have been visited with rains, but they have produced but little beneficial effect, owing to the absence of dews, and the dryness of the atmosphere. Food will be scarce and dear in this country for a year to come, and it becomes all persons to husband their resources, and practice rigid economy. Our country is so wide, and our resources so great, that there will be no absolute want, no famine, but prices will rule high, and the poor will need more than ever the sustaining hand of charity.—Chicago Dem.

MISSOURI MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.—John G. Miller and Gilechrist Porter, Luther M. Kennett, M. Oliver, Sam Carothers and J. G. Lindley—all whigs—are re-elected. They all belong to the slavery-extending school of the whig party.—Wisconsin of Saturday.

No they don't. Mr. Porter, for one, took hold and open ground against the Nebraska inquiry, so much so that the Anzeiger, the German organ in St. Louis, urged every German democrat in his district to vote for Mr. Porter as a "free-minded man, in favor of the cause of progress, and strongly opposed to the Nebraska bill." Mr. Lindley, if we mistake not, agrees in sentiment with Mr. Porter.—Mil. Sent.

A party of ladies and gentlemen, while riding out in Roxbury (Mass.) in direction of Dorchester on Friday last, took a cross road and came upon the borders of a small pond surrounded by trees. A large Newfoundland dog belonging to one of the gentlemen, could not resist the inviting coolness of the water, and plunged in. After swimming about for some time, enjoying himself hugely, he stopped suddenly at a particular spot; from that he began to swim round and round, making a circle smaller, when he dived beneath the surface, reappearing, however, speedily, bearing in his mouth the naked body of an infant. Swimming ashore with his prize, he shook himself to free the superfluous water from his shaggy front. The shaking separated the head of the infant from the body, and it immediately sunk; the headless trunk was brought ashore, and laid carefully on the grass. The ladies were much excited, and one in particular, was excessively agitated. The body was in an advanced state of decomposition.—The affair is a mysterious one.

RUSSIAN FORTRESSES.—Admiral Napier has written home that neither Cronstadt nor Sveaborg can be taken with the most powerful fleet ever gathered together. He says:

"It has not been in my power to do anything with this powerful fleet, but attacking either Cronstadt or Sveaborg, would have been certain destruction."

VICE ADMIRAL CHADS, also writes: "After two day's inspections from the light-house, and full views of the forts and ships, the former are too substantial for the fire of ships to make any impression. They are like masses of granite. With respect to an attack on the ships (Russians) where they are, it is not to be entertained."

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—Our attention has been called by the teller of Commercial Bank, to a dangerous counterfeit which has just made its appearance, on the Oneida Valley Bank. It is a five dollar bill, paper rather thin and flimsy, and though the engraving is very fairly done, there is rather a pale appearance to the bill.—The coat of arms of the state of New York, on the upper left hand corner, on close examination will be found to be imperfect. The imprint of Rawdon, Wright, Hatch & Edson, New York, will also be found not to be regular and straight. Persons will do well to refuse all fives on this bank unless they are familiar with the genuine.—Chicago Democrat, Monday.

We learn just as our paper goes to press, this morning, that during the thunder shower of last Friday night a man named Merchant, residing a mile south of Winnebago station, and four of his children were killed instantly by a stroke of lightning. The father, mother, and five children (comprising the whole family) were lying upon the floor in a bed together, and the mother and one child only escaped alive. This was truly a terrible visitation.—Rockford Democrat, Thursday.

RAISING THE ERIE.—The remnant of the hull of the steamer Erie, burned off Silver creek, thirteen years ago on Thursday last, was towed into port last evening. The engine and valves found on board had been previously removed. She is the hardest wreck we ever saw, and can be of no use, unless it be for the iron that holds her together. Rumor says that some $1500 in silver coin was found, besides a large quantity of gold, silver and copper in a melted state.—Buff. Rep., 12th.

We are informed that the cholera is prevailing at the present time to a very considerable extent, in our sister city of Racine. Whilst we have been suffering heretofore, Racine has been in a measure exempt; but the deadly infection, it appears, is disposed to show no partiality.—We have heard of no cases in our city for a number of days past, and we trust have heard the last of it for this season, at least.—Kenosha Tel.

WHAT THE NORTH MUST NEXT SUBMIT TO.—The southern papers are agitating the question of re-opening the external slave trade. Their chief arguments are as follows: "The Germans and Irish are flooding the northern states; they are little better, wiser or more patriotic than negroes; to balance their influence and power, the slave states must import laborers to offset the German and Irish emigrants who do not settle among slaves. They argue the inconsistency of contending for slavery as a divine, benevolent and republican institution, yet live under a law of congress making it piracy to import slaves from Africa. They go into long arguments to prove that the north is hastening into anarchy by reason of the laboring masses having control of the ballot box; that we are a set of incendiaries having our ranks constantly recruited by the rabble of Europe, to whom exciting appeals are made in the name of liberty."

It is ceaselessly contended by those who affect to be dissatisfied with the late acts of congress, yet cry for peace and acquiescence,—that "this the last surrender they are going to make to the south never will they submit again, &c." Now here is another negro question grating through the fence in the shape of re-opening the external slave trade. This may be shoved through, and a new dissatisfaction will follow; then the dough-faces will blubber again and mutter "peace and submission." Then Cuba annexation, South America, and the Mosquito Kingdom! what else God knows. Still "peace and submission!" Never by the eternal can high-spirited, honorable man more proclaim "peace and submission." "Repeal" is the word. Demagogues, it is expected, will be for peace. They would submit to the Spanish inquisition. We once submitted to the yoke—the fugitive slave law, and urged "peace and submission." It was the last, and we have repeated a thousand times we ever swallowed that infamous morsel.

Upon the opening of the external slave trade, negroes will be huddled into the United States, as if Africa had swallowed all the quack doctors and cathartic pills in America. Negroes will be imported for every kind of use, even for making sausages and working in harness. All the while this importation of animal locomotion of doubtful race, as to whether man or beast, is going on, we are to be frightened into "peace and submission." That old charge, abolition, —the standing panacea to coerce submission to every wrong, will be doctored out freely. Fools will deal freely in the nostrum, cowards will quail and brave men will resent like spoiled children.—Grant County Herald.

PARTY VS. PRINCIPLE.—The last number of the La Crosse Democrat devotes nearly two columns to showing the evil which will result from "democrats" leaving their old party for the sake of principle at the coming election. It begins thus:

"The coming election is an important one to the democratic party; not perhaps so much with regard to new issues involved, as rather as a test of the strength and vitality of the party."

We would prefer a test of the strength of principle. The strength of democracy has been sufficiently tested. We have seen that in proportion as it goes strong virtue, public faith, patriotism have grown weak. Corruption has grown fat and rampant. The people and their interests have been disregarded, and "democracy" has become equal to the task of electing "Barstow and the balance" in Wisconsin, and of passing Nebraska bills in Congress. This may not be the fault of all parties that are long enough in power to become corrupt. We venture to say that no party was ever organized but what would in the course of time, by long continuance in power, by the consciousness of strength, and that it could carry whatever measures it should please, become an oppressive and intolerable weight upon the people. Rogues always go over to the winning side. After a few triumphs, the trimmers join the victorious party. Such is the present condition of the democratic party.—Such will be the position of every party after so long a period of success. The only safety for the people is in an occasional change. They are becoming convinced of this, and the hoary humbug of "democracy" must be checked. It must pass through the purifying ordeal of defeat for a few years, before it can again become entitled to public confidence.—Madison Journal.

KANSAS.—At a recent meeting in the city of New York for the formation of an emigration "league," Mr. Eli Thayer gave a detailed account of the "Emigrant Aid Company." In the course of his remarks he stated that in spite of all the accounts that have been circulated to the contrary, not a single slaveholder in Missouri has yet moved his slaves into Kansas. None had, as yet, had more than sufficient courage to stake out their claims. By the first of September, Mr. Thayer also stated, more than a thousand men, under the protection of the society, would be on their way to Kansas, to be followed until navigation closed by others in their track. These emigrants coming from free States would soon be there in sufficient numbers to control the states and keep a free territory. The company are now locating two cities, the situation of which will be made known in a few days, and will afford a favorable opportunity for the investment of capital.—Boston Atlas.

Those who talk of non-intervention for the purpose of freeing the administration from guilt in legislating slavery into Nebraska and Kansas by tearing away the Missouri compromise obstruction, are replied to as follows by the Syracuse Chronicle:

"When a farmer orders the fence taken down between his hog yard and corn field, he does not order the hogs into the corn—oh, no!"

By the way, why cannot the eastern mail be despatched from Madison by the morning instead of the evening train.—Sentinel.

We learn from the postmaster here that there is yet no contract for carrying the mails at all between here and Milwaukee. Whenever the contract is completed, or now, he will deliver the mails as they are called for. The railroad company ought to send for them so that they can go in the morning train. It would bring us 12 hours nearer Milwaukee. Our paper issued this afternoon does not get to Milwaukee till tomorrow evening, whereas they ought to get there to-morrow morning.—Madison Argus.

We took a turn round the country a few days ago, to see how the husbandman was progressing with his labors, and found them reaping an abundant harvest from their labors of the past year. All kinds of grain are better than common and have been secured in good order. All this hue and cry of loss by wind and flood was mostly imaginary. What particularly attracted our attention was some splendid orchards, in which were many trees loaded with fruit. One orchard that we noticed was a model of neatness and thrift.—Platteville American.

EATING TAINTED MEAT.—A family of Belgians, three miles east of Green Bay, lost five of their number, by a disease resembling cholera. The Advocate says it was brought on by eating tainted meat, and that the whole five died within 24 hours after partaking of it.

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843.

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to relate to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessment beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be personally interested in the company, and they give their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST.

THE MADISON MUTUAL.

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, belonging to farmers, household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, etc., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made.

It is to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently they will have to losses only their own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are on stores, barns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

MOVEMENTS IN MICHIGAN AND OTHER STATES.
—Certain presses seem to be very much annoyed at the course pursued by the freesoilers and whigs in Michigan, Ohio, Illinois, Wisconsin, &c. Now the course of the whigs in these states does not give us any trouble at all. We are too liberal in our views and feelings to wish to control our whig friends in other states. We cheerfully grant them what we claim for ourselves, the right of managing our own affairs in our own way. There may be reasons in Michigan which call upon the whigs and freesoilers to drop their old organizations and unite in one party to oppose the old fogy, democratic Cass party in Michigan. They have long been in power there and have hung like an incubus about the neck of all improvements and reforms. By following Cass they have become a rabid pro-slavery party ready to do the bidding of their southern masters in all things. So long as they are permitted to bear away, the state is chained down to the dotard policy of Gen. Cass at home, and the reckless, aggressive, slavery extension policy abroad. Such a state of things is well calculated to bring together into one party, all those who are alive to a sense of the danger arising from the encroachments of the slave power, and the policy subservient to that interest which has been cherished by the democrats in this state.

We leave the whigs in that state to judge for themselves, and to adopt such measures as they may think best calculated to stay the evil which threatens them, and to carry forward the great cause which every whig has at heart. As the whigs of Massachusetts feel themselves qualified to judge in their own case, and to manage their own affairs; so they are willing to leave their brethren in other states in the enjoyment of the same privilege. What Massachusetts may do is no rule for Ohio or Michigan, and what they may do is no rule for us. The whigs do not allow, like the democrats, a central master at the White House to "crush out" the independence of the states. They do not feel willing to surrender their manhood to any one ambitious leader, or to advocate the extension of slavery at the bidding of any tool of the south. The whigs are in favor of the right of private judgment, and disdain to follow the lead of any one man or any set of men.

The whigs throughout the north are opposed to the spread of that institution in view of which Jefferson said, that he trembled for his country when he considered that God was just. And being thus opposed, they will use the most efficient measures to resist the grasping spirit of those who are striving to uphold it. But the efficiency of the means to be employed must depend upon circumstances. The most efficient means in one state may not be the most efficient in another. In Massachusetts the whigs are the dominant party, numbering twice as many as the freesoil party, and there seems to be no good reason why they should give up their organization, and form a new party when that new party could take no other ground with any hope of success in opposing the encroachments of slavery, than that already adopted by the whigs. We, like our brethren in other states, are resolved to assert our manhood, and strive to place a delegation in congress which will be proof against temptation, and which will stand firm in freedom's cause. This is our object, and those who seek the same end can co-operate with us.

We complain of the south, but have more reason to complain of the traitors among us, who betray northern interests. We want such action at the north as will enable us to sustain men who are faithful, and to consign to infamy those who have been found willing to barter freedom for some paltry office. The whigs are ready, we trust, to take this ground and when they have filled congress with good men and true, they will demand at their hands the repeal of the Nebraska bill. Such are our objects, and all who seek the same end can become co-workers together with us, and will find us intent upon that great and good object.—Boston Atlas.

JANESVILLE : : : WISCONSIN.

FRIDAY MORNING, AUG. 18, 1854.

Congressional Convention—Second District.

The electors of the second congressional district of Wisconsin, comprising the counties of Rock, Green, Dane, Iowa, Lafayette, Grant, Richland, Sauk, Adams, Portage, Marathon, Crawford, Bad Ax, La Crosse, Monroe, Polk, Pierce, Trempealeau, Elk, Chippewa, Clark, Dunn, Buffalo, St. Croix, Douglas, and in favor of the principles announced in the "Nebraska" platform, adopted at Madison July 29th, are invited to meet in their respective assembly districts and select two delegates from each to represent them in a congressional convention to be held at Mineral Point on Wednesday, the 18th of September, at 12 o'clock M., to nominate a candidate to be supported at the approaching election. By order of the state central committee, WM. A. WHITE, Chairman.

Madison, August 14.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.—We publish to-day the call of the central committee for a convention to be held at Mineral Point, September 18th, to nominate a candidate for congress in this congressional district, to be supported by all who oppose the Nebraska swindle. The call recommends the selection of two delegates from each assembly district. Of course, it is not to be expected that the delegation thus indicated will be full, but we hope it may be as nearly so as the circumstances of the case will possibly admit. It is important that the convention should embody the public sentiment of the entire district. The movement has commenced auspiciously, and if carried forward with the same spirit, and with the same determination that have characterized it thus far, we sincerely believe it cannot fail of success. The friends of the administration at first undertook to decide, laugh down and misrepresent the number and spirit of the Madison convention, but they have been willing to let that job out for some time past. They have found that there was too much earnestness in the movement, that it carried with it too much of the sympathy and approval of the people at large, to make any such disposal of it practicable. They also began to make some show of opposition to the leading issue presented by that convention; they have undertaken to endorse the Nebraska bill as a party measure, but they seem now to be trying to dodge the issue, and if they can't keep still about it, to keep as still as they can. Are they to be trusted upon this question, even should they disclaim it as a party issue? Suppose they should, from motives of policy, nominate a man not committed for that measure, or if you please, committed against it, would the people of this congressional district be safe in reposing confidence in him. We think not, and we don't believe they are disposed to do it.

IOWA ELECTION.—The returns thus far from Iowa look first rate. There is always danger in placing too much confidence in the first reports of elections, but the defeat of the administration party in that state seems now pretty certain. The Dubuque Tribune of Monday has returns from twenty-five counties in which seventeen anti-Nebraska candidates are elected to the general assembly, to only eight Nebraska candidates. Seventeen counties give Thornton 677 majority over Hempstead, for congress. The Tribune says:

In every county from which we have heard, (which cast its votes against us,) our opponents have dragged in some extraneous issue. On the mere naked question of the Nebraska swindle, we would have carried every county in the state, except Dubuque, in which is concentrated, and from which emanates all the local patronage of the general government. If democracy is defeated in Iowa, as appearances indicate, we know not in what northern state that party may look for success.

A SMASH UP.—A pair of horses attached to a carriage, and belonging to Mr. Urias Story, got loose yesterday on Main street, and started to run, but soon found a day across their path. This they jumped entirely over, and were brought up against an awning post. The carriage struck the day about "mid-ships" and turned it and the horse attached topsy turvy in no time. No body hurt, and but little damage done.

Mr. Dockery is defeated and Mr. Badger will be re-elected. The Gazette will please stick a pin there.—Mil. News.

We will stick two into North Carolina if the News will stick one into Iowa.

ONE OF THE NATIVES.—There is a regular, live rattlesnake to be seen at the grocery store of A. K. Allen. His snakeship is a native of northern Wisconsin, is seventeen years old, measures six feet in length, four inches in circumference, and has fourteen "rattles." He is entirely harmless, his poisonous teeth having been very considerably extracted. He is a great curiosity in his way, and when stirred up, gives very delightful music upon "the bones."

A STRICKEN TOWN.—The Freeport Bulletin of the 10th inst., says that since the first of July there have been 74 deaths in that town, and 50 of these were from cholera. The number of cases which recovered are not given. Freeport has a population of three or four thousand.

Attention is directed to the insurance advertisement of C. C. Cheney. He has added several new companies to his list.

DEAD!—Hon. E. Ricker, of Manitowish, died of cholera on Friday last. He was a prominent citizen, served one term as county judge, and was a member of the legislature in 1852 and 1853. He was aged 33; emigrated to Manitowish in 1846. He leaves a wife and two lovely daughters to mourn his loss.—Madison Argus, 15th.

SUNK AGAIN.—The repairs on the railroad were completed last evening. Before however, the eastern train arrived the track "went under" again out of sight. It is worse now than it was before.—Id.

JANESVILLE, Aug. 18th, 1854.

Mr. T. BOWMAN:—In the first note addressed by me to you in the Gazette, I said I proposed to show that the Hon. David Noggle had perpetrated in the speech he delivered at Fulton, on the 4th of July last, a literary larceny.

In the extracts given from Mr. Chase's oration and my own, I think it will be apparent to you that he has done so. He claims (it is said) that the oration delivered upon the occasion when you were president of the day, had been pronounced by him at Beloit in 1840. This may be so; but is it not a strange coincidence that a gentleman residing in New York should filch from another in the then territory of Wisconsin, a fourth of July oration? And taking into consideration the fact that he has plagiarized from so humble an individual as myself, is it not fair to presume that the speech delivered at your place was an emanation from the brain of another, even though Mr. Chase may have stolen his address from some other gentleman? It is said in the streets, and confidently avowed, that at the time when Mr. Noggle delivered his address in Beloit, in 1840, which he claims is substantially the same, as addressed to your people, it was then known that that address was not his own production. For the truth of this assertion I will not now touch. But if the fact can be ascertained hereafter, you, and those before whom it was delivered, should be advised of the larceny.

But, Mr. Bowman, how will Mr. Noggle account for having filched from me? Will he say that we both have taken our thoughts and language from another? If he does, will it not place him as an orator and a gentleman in a very unenviable position? And without intending to be egotistical or boastful, I simply wish to say that I defy Mr. Noggle, or any other man, to produce any speech or oration from which I have taken that portion of his address which he has taken from mine. The thoughts therein contained perhaps are not new; but the language is my own. The extracts are placed side by side with each other, and you, or any other gentleman, cannot fail to perceive that most of the sentences are almost precisely identical.

I do not wish to abuse Mr. Noggle, but I merely wish to establish the proposition first made, that he had committed a literary larceny. To you and the community at large I leave the issue and ask your judgment.

Personally, I am unacquainted with you, and have addressed you simply because you were the president of the day on the occasion upon which Mr. Noggle's oration was delivered.

I ask your pardon for the liberty I have taken, and beg you to understand that the words "fervid eloquence," which I used in my first note, do not apply to any thing which Mr. Noggle has stolen from me.

Very respectfully,

JAMES ARMSTRONG.

P. S. Since the above was written, I have taken from the Wisconsin, published at Milwaukee, and of the date of Aug. 16th, 1854, the following article:

"A DOUBT PLAGIARISM.—The Janesville Gazette publishes a communication placing side by side, portions of the fourth of July oration of R. C. Chase, delivered at Jay, and published in the Elizabethtown, Essex county, N. Y. Post, August 14, 1853, and that of David Noggle, delivered at Fulton, Rock county, Wisconsin, on the 4th of July, 1854, by which the latter gentleman is convicted of plagiarism, to a great extent. But this is not the best of the joke. The very oration of Mr. Chase, from which Mr. Noggle draws so liberally, is substantially the great oration delivered by Silas Wright, at Canton, N. Y., several years since. A friend recognizes the ideas, and in most places, the precise words of the great statesman, as pronounced by him and subsequently published; although he is sorry to see in many places, a shocking mutilation of the grand ideas and charming style of Mr. Wright, to cover up the slovenly track of Mr. Chase."

I have also seen a copy of the Rockford Star of 1840 in which that part of this speech which I have quoted, was published, and upon examining the files of "The Janesville Gazette," (if you have the curiosity to do so) you will find the same portion in a number of that paper dated August 1st, 1846, and again you find it in the Free Press of July 18th, A. D. 1854.

Even admitting it was his own production, what a precious prodigy, in his own estimation, it must have been—how paternally he must have hugged it to his bosom and kept it by his side—and how self-sacrificing he must have been to give it to the gaze of the world three times within the last fourteen years and within a circumference of thirty miles.

Should he hereafter have occasion to again favor the public with its republication, I would suggest that he save himself the trouble of rewriting it and the printers the annoyance of studying over a bungling manuscript by furnishing a printed copy.

J. A.

THE MISSOURI LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature is still in doubt. It is probable however that in point of numbers the whigs will be first, anti-Benton next, and Benton democrats last. One thing is certain that the Benton democrats will hold the balance of power, and Atchison cannot be re-elected. Edward Bates is, and was opposed to a repeal of the Missouri compromise, and it is possible that he may be returned by Benton's friends in conjunction with liberal whigs.—Wisconsin.

MILLER'S STEAM BRIDGE.—The name of an invention recently applied to railroad cars. On the Pontiac road, it stopped a train running 80 miles an hour, in 18 seconds, in a distance of 580 feet, the engine not being reversed! It consists of an iron steam-pipe under the cars, the connections between the cars being made with pipes of gutta percha. The railroad men think it practicable.

A PRISONER FOR DEBT FOR THIRTY-NINE YEARS.—A man named William Miller was imprisoned in Winchester, England, jail thirty-nine years ago, since which time he remained closely immured, spending the last three years and eight months in solitary confinement. His only crime was a debt of $600.

Assessors of the several towns are referred to the session laws of 1854, sec. 2, chap. 13, page 89, which reads as follows:

"It shall be the duty of the assessor, or assessors, authorized by law, to assess taxable property for state, county and town purposes, in each town or in each ward, or city, or incorporated village in this state, to furnish to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county in which such town, city or incorporated village may be, on or before the first day of August, in each year, the original assessment roll in said town, ward, city, or incorporated village, as made by said assessor or assessors, for the year in which such assessment is made. If such assessor shall fail or refuse to furnish such assessment roll as above provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable in a sum not less than ten, nor more than fifty dollars."

As the laws were not to be seen till about the first of August, we presume no fine will be exacted for any failure or refusal to comply with the legal requirements.—Grant County Herald.

We don't know as this matter possesses any interest for any body in this county, but if it does we publish it for their information.

The Free Democrat says it is informed that the Milwaukee and Watertown railroad "has violated the contract with Bishop, Stewart, & Co., and thus have refused themselves to go on with the contract. The company are in arrears, we understand, to Bishop, Stewart & Co., two estimates."

THE GREAT DROUGHT OF '54.—The New York Tribune estimates the loss by the present great drought which is afflicting this country, at one hundred millions, and the loss of New York state alone, at twenty millions. One hundred millions is probably a low estimate for the whole country. Every day brings intelligence of the extent of the drought, which is much greater than is generally supposed. Some few localities have been visited with rains, but they have produced but little beneficial effect, owing to the absence of dews, and the dryness of the atmosphere. Food will be scarce and dear in this country for a year to come, and it becomes all persons to husband their resources, and practice rigid economy. Our country is so wide, and our resources so great, that there will be no absolute want, no famine, but prices will rule high, and the poor will need more than ever the sustaining hand of charity.—Chicago Dem.

MISSOURI MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.—John G. Miller and Gilchrist Porter, Luther M. Kennett, M. Oliver, Sam. Caruthers and J. G. Lindley—all whigs—are elected. They all belong to the slavery-extending school of the whig party.—Wisconsin of Saturday.

No they don't. Mr. Porter, for one, took hold and open ground against the Nebraska inquiry, so much so that the Anzeiger, the German organ in St. Louis, urged every German democrat in his district to vote for Mr. Porter as a "freeminded man, in favor of the cause of progress, and strongly opposed to the Nebraska bill."

Mr. Lindley, if we mistake not, agrees in sentiment with Mr. Porter.—Mil. Sent.

A party of ladies and gentlemen, while riding out on Roxbury (Mass.) in direction of Dorchester on Friday last, took a cross road and came upon the borders of a small pond surrounded by trees. A large Newfoundland dog belonging to one of the gentlemen, could not resist the inviting coolness of the water, and plunged in. After swimming about for some time, enjoying himself hugely, he stopped suddenly at a particular spot; from that he began to swim round and round, making a circle smaller, when he dived beneath the surface, reappearing, however, speedily, bearing in his mouth the naked body of an infant. Swimming ashore with his prize, he shook himself to free the superfluous water from his shaggy front. The shuffling separated the head of the infant from the body, and it immediately sunk; the headless trunk was brought ashore, and laid carefully on the grass. The ladies were much excited, and one in particular, was excessively agitated. The body was in an advanced state of decomposition.—The affair is a mysterious one.

RUSSIAN FORTRESSES.—Admiral Napier has written home that neither Cronstadt nor Sveaborg can be taken with the most powerful fleet ever gathered together. He says:

"It has not been in my power to do anything with this powerful fleet, but attacking either Cronstadt or Sveaborg, would have been certain destruction."

Vice Admiral Chade, also writes:

"After two days' inspections from the light-house, and full views of the forts and ships, the former are too substantial for the fire of ships to make any impression. They are like masses of granite. With respect to an attack on the ships (Russians) where they are, it is not to be entertained."

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—Our attention has been called by the teller of Commercial Bank, to a dangerous counterfeit which has just made its appearance, on the Oneida Valley Bank. It is a five dollar bill, paper rather thin and flimsy, and though the engraving is very finely done, there is rather a pale appearance to the bill. On the coat of arms of the state of New York, the upper left hand corner, on close examination will be found to be imperfect. The imprint of Rawdon, Wright, Hatch & Edson, New York, will also be found not to be regular and straight. Persons will do well to refuse all fives on this bank unless they are familiar with the genuine.—Chicago Democrat, Monday.

We learn just as our paper goes to press, this morning, that during the thunder shower of last Friday night a man named Merchant, residing a mile south of Winnebago station, and four of his children were killed instantly by a stroke of lightning. The father, mother, and five children (comprising the whole family) were lying upon the floor in a bed together, and the mother and one child only escaped alive. This was truly a terrible visitation.—Rockford Democrat, Thursday.

RAISING THE ERIE.—The remnant of the hull of the steamer Erie, burned off Silver creek, thirteen years ago on Thursday last, was towed into port last evening. The engine and valuable found on board had been previously removed. She is the hardest wreck we ever saw, and can be of no use, unless it be for the iron that holds her together. Rumor says that some $1500 in silver coin was found, besides a large quantity of gold, silver and copper in a melted state.—Buff. Rep., 12th.

We are informed that the cholera is prevailing at the present time to a very considerable extent, in our sister city of Racine. Whilst we have been suffering heretofore, Racine has been in a measure exempt; but the deadly infliction, it appears, is disposed to show no partiality.—We have heard of no cases in our city for a number of days past, and we trust, have heard the last of it for this season, at least.—Kenosha Tel.

WHAT THE NORTH MUST NEXT SUBMIT TO.—The southern papers are agitating the question of re-opening the external slave trade. Their chief arguments are as follows: The Germans and Irish are flooding the northern states; they are little better, wiser or more patriotic than negroes; to balance their influence and power, the slave states must also import laborers to offset the German and Irish emigrants who do not settle among slaves. They argue the inconsistency of contending for slavery as a divine, benevolent and republican institution, yet live under a law of congress making it piracy to import slaves from Africa. They go into long arguments to prove that the north is hastening into anarchy by reason of the laboring masses having control of the ballot box; that we are a set of incendiaries having our ranks constantly recruited by the rabble of Europe, to whom exciting appeals are made in the name of liberty.

It is ceaselessly contended by those who affect to be dissatisfied with the late acts of congress, yet cry for peace and acquiescence,—that "this is the last surrender" they are going to make to the south—never will they submit again, &c. Now here is another negro question grinning through the fence in the shape of re-opening the external slave trade. That may be shored through, and a new dissatisfaction will follow; then the dough-faces will blubber again and mutter "peace and submission." Then Cuba annexation, South America, and the Mosquito Kingdom! What else God knows. Still "peace and submission!" Never by the eternal can the high-spirited, honorable man more proclaim "peace and submission." "Repeal" is the word. Demagogues, it is expected, will be for peace.—They would submit to the yoke—the fugitive slave law, and urged "peace and submission." It was the last, and we have repeated a thousand times we ever swallowed that infamous morsel.

Upon the opening of the external slave trade, negroes will be huddled into the United States, as if Africa had swallowed all the quick doctors and cathartic pills in America. Negroes will be imported for every kind of use, even for making sausages and working in harness. All the while this importation of animal locomotion of doubtful race, as to whether man or beast, is going on, war, to be frightened into "peace and submission." That old charge, abolition, —the standing panacea to cure submission to every wrong, will be tossed out freely. Fools will clasp their hands in the posthum, cowards will cheer and brave men will resent like spoiled children.—Grant County Herald.

PARTY VS. PRINCIPLE.—The last number of the La Crosse Democrat devotes nearly two columns to showing the evil which will result from "democrats" joining their old party for the sake of principle at the coming election. It begins thus:

"The coming election is an important one to the democratic party; not perhaps so much with regard to new issues involved, as rather as a test of the strength and vitality of the party."

We would prefer a test of the strength of principle. The strength of democracy has been sufficiently tested. We have seen that in proportion as it goes through virtue, public faith, patriotism have grown weak. Corruption has grown fat and rampant. The people and their interests have been disregarded, and "democracy" has become equal to the task of electing "Barstow and the balance" in Wisconsin, and of passing Nebraska bills in Congress. This may not be the fault of the particular party, so much as it is the fault of all parties that are long enough in power to become corrupt. We venture to say that no party was ever organized but what would in the course of time, by long continuance in power, by the consciousness of strength, and that it could carry whatever measures it should please, become an oppressive and intolerable weight upon the people. Rogues always go over to the winning side. After a few triumphs, the trimmers join the victorious party. Such is the present condition of the democratic party.—Such will be the position of every party after so long a period of success. The only safety for the people is in an occasional change. They are becoming convinced of this, and the hoary humbug of "democracy" must be checked. It must pass through the purifying ordeal of defeat for a few years, before it can again become entitled to public confidence.—Madison Journal.

KANSAS.—At a recent meeting in the city of New York for the formation of an emigration "league," Mr. Eli Thayer gave a detailed account of the "Emigrant Aid Company." In the course of his remarks he stated that in spite of all the accounts that have been circulated to the contrary, not a single slaveholder in Missouri has yet moved his slaves into Kansas. None had, as yet, had more than sufficient courage to stake out their claims. By the first of September, Mr. Thayer also stated, more than a thousand men, under the protection of the society, would be on their way to Kansas, to be followed until navigation closed by others in their track. These emigrants coming from free states would soon be there in sufficient numbers to control the states and keep a free territory. The company are now locating two cities, the situation of which will be made known in a few days, and will afford a favorable opportunity for the investment of capital.—Boston Atlas.

Those who talk of non-intervention for the purpose of freeing the administration from guilt in legislating slavery into Nebraska and Kansas by tearing away the Missouri compromise obstruction, are replied to as follows by the Syracuse Chronicle:

"When a farmer orders the fence taken down between his hog yard and corn field, he does not order the hogs into the corn—oh, no!"

By the way, why cannot the eastern mail be despatched from Madison by the morning instead of the evening train.—Sentinel.

We learn from the postmaster here that there is yet no contract for carrying the mails at all between here and Milwaukee. Whenever the contract is completed, or now, he will deliver the mails as they are called for. The railroad company ought to send for them so that they could go in the morning train. Our paper issued this afternoon does not get to Milwaukee till tomorrow evening, whereas they ought to get there to-morrow morning.—Madison Argus.

We took a turn round the country a few days ago, to see how the husbandman was progressing with his labors, and found them reaping an abundant harvest from their labors of the past year. All kinds of grain are better than common and have been secured in good order. All the hue and cry of loss by wind and flood was mostly imaginary. What particularly attracted our attention was some splendid orchards, in which were many trees loaded with fruit. One orchard that we noticed was a model of neatness and thrift.—Platteville American.

EATING TAINTED MEAT.—A family of Belgians, three miles east of Green Bay, lost five of their number, by a disease resembling cholera. The Advocate says it was brought on by eating tainted meat, and that the whole five died within 24 hours after partaking of it.

Congressional Convention—Second District.

The electors of the second congressional district of Wisconsin, comprising the counties of Rock, Green, Dane, Iowa, Lafayette, Grant, Richland, Sauk, Adams, Portage, Marathon, Crawford, Bad Ax, La Crosse, Monroe, Polk, Pierce, Trempealeau, Elk, Chippewa, Clark, Dunn, Buffalo, St. Croix, Douglas and La Pointe, who are opposed to the Nebraska swindle, and in favor of the principles announced in the "Republican" platform, adopted at Madison July 18th, are invited to meet in their respective assembly districts and select two delegates from each to represent them in a congressional convention to be held at Mineral Point on Wednesday, the 18th of September, at 12 o'clock P. M., to nominate a candidate to be supported at the approaching election. By order of the state central committee, W. A. WHITE, Chairman.

Madison, August 14.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.—We publish to-day the call of the central committee for a convention to be held at Mineral Point, September 18th, to nominate a candidate for congress in this congressional district, to be supported by all who oppose the Nebraska swindle. The call recommends the selection of two delegates from each assembly district. Of course, it is not to be expected that the delegation thus indicated will be full, but we hope it may be as nearly so as the circumstances of the case will possibly admit. It is important that the convention should embody the public sentiment of the entire district. The movement has commenced auspiciously, and if carried forward with the same spirit, and with the same determination that have characterized it thus far, we sincerely believe it cannot fail of success. The friends of the administration at first undertook to deride, laugh down and misrepresent the number and spirit of the Madison convention, but they have been willing to let that job out for some time past. They have found that there was too much earnestness in the movement, that it carried with it too much of the sympathy and approval of the people at large, to make any such disposal of it practicable. They also began to make some show of opposition to the leading issue presented by that convention; they have undertaken to endorse the Nebraska bill as a party measure, but they seem now to be trying to dodge the issue, and, if they can't keep still about it, to keep as still as they can. Are they to be trusted upon this question, even should they disclaim it as a party issue? Suppose they should, from motives of policy, nominate a man not committed for that measure, or if you please, committed against it, would the people of this congressional district be safe in reposing confidence in him. We think not, and we don't believe they are disposed to do it.

IOWA ELECTION.—The returns thus far from Iowa look first rate. There is always danger in placing too much confidence in the first reports of elections, but the defeat of the administration party in that state seems now pretty certain. The Dubuque Tribune of Monday has returns from twenty-five counties in which seventeen anti-Nebraska candidates are elected to the general assembly, to only eight Nebraska candidates. Seventeen counties give Thornton 977 majority over Hempstead, for congress. The Tribune says:

In every county from which we have heard, (which cast its votes against us,) our opponents have dragged in some extraneous issue. On the mere naked question of the Nebraska swindle, we would have carried every county in the state, except Dubuque, in which is concentrated, and from which emanates all the local patronage of the general government. If democracy is defeated in Iowa, as appearances indicate, we know not in what northern state that party may look for success.

A SMASH UP.—A pair of horses attached to a carriage, and belonging to Mr. Uris Story, got loose yesterday on Main street, and started to run, but soon found a dray across their path. This they jumped entirely over, and were brought up against an awning post. The carriage struck the dray about "mid-ships" and turned it and the horse attached topsooty turvy in no time. No body hurt, and but little damage done.

Mr. Dockery is defeated and Mr. Badger will be re-elected. The Gazette will please stick a pin there.—Mil. News.

We will stick two into North Carolina if the News will stick one into Iowa.

ONE OF THE NATIVES.—There is a regular, live rattlesnake to be seen at the grocery store of A. K. Allen. His snakeship is a native of northern Wisconsin, is seventeen years old, measures six feet in length, four inches in circumference, and has fourteen "rattles." He is entirely harmless, his poisonous teeth having been very considerably extracted. He is a great curiosity in his way, and when stirred up, gives very delightful music upon "the bones."

A STRICKEN TOWN.—The Freeport Bulletin of the 10th inst., says that since the first of July there have been 74 deaths in that town, and 60 of these were from cholera. The number of cases which recovered are not given. Freeport has a population of three or four thousand.

Attention is directed to the insurance advertisement of C. C. Cheney. He has added several new companies to his list.

DEAD!—Hon. E. Ricker, of Manitowish, died of cholera on Friday last. He was a prominent citizen, served one term as county judge, and was a member of the legislature in 1852 and 1853. He was aged 33; emigrated to Manitowish in 1840. He leaves a wife and two lovely daughters to mourn his loss.—Madison Argus, 16th.

SUNK AGAIN.—The repairs on the railroad were completed last evening. Before however, the eastern train arrived the track "went under" again out of sight. It is worse now than it was before.—Id.

JANESVILLE, Aug. 18th, 1854.

MR. T. BOWMAN.
DEAR SIR:—In the first note addressed by me to you in the Gazette, I said I proposed to show that the Hon. David Noggle had perpetrated in the speech he delivered at Fulton, on the 4th of July last, a literary larceny.

In the extracts given from Mr. Chase's oration and my own, I think it will be apparent to you that he has done so. He claims (it is said) that the oration delivered upon the occasion when you were president of the day, had been pronounced by him at Beloit in 1840. This may be so; but is it not a strange coincidence that a gentleman residing in New York should filch from another in the then territory of Wisconsin, a fourth of July oration? And taking into consideration the fact that he has plagiarized from so humble an individual as myself, is it not fair to presume that the speech delivered at your place was an emanation from the brain of another, even though Mr. Chase may have stolen his address from some other gentleman? It is said in the streets, and confidently averred, that at the time when Mr. Noggle delivered his address in Beloit, in 1840, which he claims is substantially the same, as addressed to your people, it was then known that that address was not his own production. For the truth of this assertion I will not now vouch. But if the fact can be ascertained hereafter, you, and those before whom it was delivered, should be advised of the larceny.

But, Mr. Bowman, how will Mr. Noggle account for having filched from me? Will he say that we both have taken our thoughts and language from another? If he does, will it not place him as an orator and a gentleman in a very unenviable position? And without intending to be egotistical or boastful, I simply wish to say that I defy Mr. Noggle, or any other man, to produce any speech or oration from which I have taken that portion of his address which he has taken from mine. The thoughts therein contained perhaps are not new; but the language is my own. The extracts are placed side by side with each other, and you, or any other gentleman, cannot fail to perceive that most of the sentences are almost precisely identical.

I do not wish to abuse Mr. Noggle, but I merely wish to establish the proposition first made, that he had committed a literary larceny. To you and the community at large I leave the issue and ask your judgment.

Personally, I am unacquainted with you, and have addressed you simply because you were the president of the day on the occasion upon which Mr. Noggle's oration was delivered.

I ask your pardon for the liberty I have taken, and beg you to understand that the words "fervid eloquence," which I used in my first note, do not apply to any thing which Mr. Noggle has stolen from me.

Very respectfully,
JAMES ARMSTRONG.

P. S. Since the above was written, I have taken from the Wisconsin, published at Milwaukee, and of the date of Aug. 16th, 1854, the following article:

"A DOUBLE PLAGIARISM.—The Janesville Gazette publishes a communication placing side by side, portions of the fourth of July oration of R. C. R. Chase, delivered at Jay, and published in the Elizabethtown, Essex county, N. Y. Post, August 14, 1853, and that of David Noggle, delivered at Fulton, Rock county, Wisconsin, on the 4th of July, 1854, by which the latter gentleman is convicted of plagiarism, to a great extent. But this is not the best of the joke. The very oration of Mr. Chase, from which Mr. Noggle draws so liberally, is substantially the great oration delivered by Silas Wright, at Canton, N. Y., several years since. A friend recognizes the ideas, and in most places, the precise words of the great statesman, as pronounced by him and subsequently published; although he is sorry to see in many places, a shocking mutilation of the grand ideas and charming style of Mr. Wright, to cover up the slovenly track of Mr. Chase."

I have also seen a copy of the Rockford Star of 1840 in which that part of this speech which I have quoted, was published, and upon examining the files of "The Janesville Gazette," (if you have the curiosity to do so) you will find the same portion in a number of that paper dated August 1st, 1846, and again you find it in the Free Press of July 18th, A. D. 1851.

Even admitting it was his own production, what a precious prodigy, in his own estimation, it must have been—how paternally he must have hugged it to his bosom and kept it by his side—and how self-sacrificing he must have been to give it to the gaze of the world three times within the last fourteen years and within a circumference of thirty miles.

Should he hereafter have occasion to again favor the public with its republication, I would suggest that he save himself the trouble of re-writing it and the printers the annoyance of studying over a bungling manuscript by furnishing a printed copy.

THE MISSOURI LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature is still in doubt. It is probable however that in point of numbers the whigs will be first, anti-Benton next, and Benton democrats last. One thing is certain that the Benton democrats will hold the balance of power, and Atol cannot be re-elected. Edward Bates is, and was opposed to a repeal of the Missouri compromise, and it is possible that he may be returned by Benton's friends in conjunction with liberal whigs.—Wisconsin.

MILLER'S STEAM BRIDGE is the name of an invention recently applied to railroad cars. On the Pontiac road, it stopped a train running 40 miles an hour, in 18 seconds, in a distance of 500 feet, the engine not being reversed! It consists of an iron steam-pipe under the cars, the connections between the cars being made with pipes of gutta percha. The railroad men think it practicable.

A PRISONER FOR DEBT FOR THIRTY-NINE YEARS.—A man named William Miller was imprisoned in Winchester, England, half thirty-nine years ago, since which time he remained closely immured, spending the last three years and eight months in solitary confinement. His only crime was a debt of $600.

Assessors of the several towns are referred to the session laws of 1854, sec. 2, chap. 13, page 89, which reads as follows:

"It shall be the duty of the assessor, or assessors, authorized by law, to assess taxable property for state, county and town purposes, in each town or in each ward, or city, or incorporated village in this state, to furnish to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county in which such town, city or incorporated village may be, on or before the first day of August in each year, the original assessment roll complete, on real and personal property in said town, ward, city, or incorporated village, as made by said assessor or assessors, for the year in which such assessment is made. If such assessor shall fail or refuse to furnish such assessment roll as above provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable in a sum not less than ten, nor more than fifty dollars."

As the laws were not to be seen till about the first of August, we presume no fine will be exacted for any failure or refusal to comply with the legal requirements.—Grant County Herald.

We don't know as this matter possesses any interest for any body in this county, but if it does we publish it for their information.

THE FREE DEMOCRAT says it is informed that the Milwaukee and Watertown railroad "has violated the contract with Bishop, Stewart & Co., and thus have refused themselves to go on with the contract. The company are in arrears, we understand, to Bishop, Stewart & Co., two estimates."

THE GREAT DROUGHT of '51.—The New York Tribune estimates the loss by the present great drought which is afflicting this country, at one hundred millions, and the loss of New York state alone, at twenty millions. One hundred millions is probably a low estimate for the whole country. Every day brings intelligence of the extent of the drought, which is much greater than is generally supposed. Some few localities have been visited with rains, but they have produced but little beneficial effect, owing to the absence of dew, and the dryness of the atmosphere. Food will be scarce and dear in this country for a year to come, and it becomes all persons to husband their resources, and practice rigid economy. Our country is so wide, and our resources so great, that there will be no absolute want, no famine, but prices will rule high, and the poor will need more than ever the sustaining hand of charity.—Chicago Dem.

MISSOURI MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.—John G. Miller and Gilchrist Porter, Luther M. Kennett, M. Oliver, Sam Caruthers and J. G. Lindley—all whigs—are re-elected. They all belong to the slavery-extending school of the whig party.—Wisconsin of Saturday.

No they don't. Mr. Porter, for one, took hold and open ground against the Nebraska inquiry, so much so that the Anzeiger, the German organ in St. Louis, urged every German democrat in his district to vote for Mr. Porter as a "freeminded man, in favor of the cause of progress, and strongly opposed to the Nebraska bill."

Mr. Lindley, if we mistake not, agrees in sentiment with Mr. Porter.—Mil. Sent.

A party of ladies and gentlemen, while riding out in Roxbury (Mass.) in direction of Dorchester on Friday last, took a cross road and came upon the borders of a small pond surrounded by trees. A large Newfoundland dog belonging to one of the gentlemen, could not resist the inviting coolness of the water, and plunged in. After swimming about for some time, enjoying himself hugely, he stopped suddenly at a particular spot; from that he began to swim round and round, making a circle smaller, when he dived beneath the surface, reappearing, however, speedily, bearing in his mouth the naked body of an infant. Swimming ashore with his prize, he shook himself to free the superfluous water from his shaggy front. The shaking separated the head of the infant from the body, and it immediately sunk; the headless trunk was brought ashore, and laid carefully on the grass. The ladies were much excited, and one in particular, was excessively agitated. The body was in an advanced state of decomposition.—The affair is a mysterious one.

RUSSIAN FORTRESSES.—Admiral Napier has written home that neither Cronstadt nor Swenborg can be taken with the most powerful fleet ever gathered together. He says:

"It has not been in my power to do anything with this powerful fleet, but attacking either Cronstadt or Swenborg, would have been certain destruction."

VICE ADMIRAL CHADS also writes:

"After two day's inspections from the light-house, and full views of the forts and ships, the former are too substantial for the fire of ships to make any impression. They are like masses of granite. With respect to an attack on the ships (Russians) where they are, it is not to be entertained."

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—Our attention has been called by the teller of Commercial Bank, to a dangerous counterfeit which has just made its appearance, on the Oneida Valley Bank. It is a five dollar bill, paper rather thin and flimsy, and though the engraving is very fairly done, there is rather a pale appearance to the bill.—The coat of arms of the state of New York, on the upper left hand corner, on close examination will be found to be imperfect. The imprint of Rawdon, Wright, Hatch & Edson, New York, will also be found not to be regular and straight. Persons will do well to refuse all fives on this bank unless they are familiar with the genuine.—Chicago Democrat, Monday.

We learn just as our paper goes to press, this morning, that during the thunder shower of last Friday night a man named Merchant, residing a mile south of Winnebago station, and four of his children were killed instantly by a stroke of lightning. The father, mother, and five children (comprising the whole family) were lying upon the floor in a bed together, and the mother and one child only escaped alive. This was truly a terrible visitation.—Rockford Democrat, Thursday.

RAISING THE ERIE.—The remnant of the hull of the steamer Erie, burned off Silver creek, thirteen years ago on Thursday last, was towed into port last evening. The engine and valves found on board had been previously removed. She is the hardest wreck we ever saw, and can be of no use, unless it be for the iron that holds her together. Rumor says that some $1500 in silver coin was found, besides a large quantity of gold, silver and copper in a melted state.—Buff. Rep., 12th.

We are informed that the cholera is prevailing at the present time to a very considerable extent, in our sister city of Racine. Whilst we have been suffering heretofore, Racine has been in a measure exempt; but the deadly infection, it appears, is disposed to show no partiality.—We have heard of no cases in our city for a number of days past, and we trust, have heard the last of it for this season, at least.—Kenosha Tel.

WHAT THE NORTH MUST NEXT SUBMIT TO.—The southern papers are agitating the question of re-opening the external slave trade. Their chief arguments are as follows: The Germans and Irish are flooding the northern states; they are little better, wiser or more patriotic than negroes; to balance their influence and power, the slave states must also import laborers to offset the German and Irish emigrants who do not settle among slaves. They argue the inconsistency of contending for slavery as a divine, beneficent and republican institution, yet live under a law of congress making it piracy to import slaves from Africa. They go into long arguments to prove that the north is hastening into slavery by reason of the laboring masses having control of the ballot box; that we are a set of incendiaries having our ranks constantly recruited by the rabble of Europe, to whom exciting appeals are made in the name of liberty.

It is consistently contended by those who affect to be dissatisfied with the late acts of congress, yet cry for peace and acquiescence,—that "this is the last surrender" they are going to make to the south—never will they submit again, &c.—Now here is another negro question glimmering through the fence in the shape of re-opening the external slave trade. That may be shoved through, and a new dissatisfaction will follow; then the dough-faces will blubber again and mutter "peace and submission." Then Cuba annexation, South America, and the Mosquito Kingdom! what else God knows. Still "peace and submission!" Never by the eternal can the high-spirited, honorable man more proclaim "peace and submission." "Repeal" is the word. Demagogues, it is expected, will be for peace.—They would submit to the Spanishquisition.—We once submitted to the yoke—the fugitive slave law, and urged "peace and submission." It was the last, and we have repeated a thousand times we ever swallowed that infamous morsel.

Upon the opening of the external slave trade, negroes will be hussled into the United States, as if Africa had swallowed all the quick doctors and cathartic pills in America. Negroes will be imported for every kind of use, even for making sausages and working in harness. All the while this importation of animal locomotion of doubtful race, as to whether man or beast, is going on, we are to be frightened into "peace and submission." That old charge, abolition—the standing panacea to coerce submission to every wrong, will be doctored out feely. Fools will deal freely in the nostrum, cowards will quail and brave men will resent like spoiled children.—Grant County Herald.

PARTY VS. PRINCIPLE.—The last number of the La Crosse Democrat devotes nearly two columns to showing the evil which will result from "democrats" leaving their old party for the sake of principle at the coming election. It begins thus:

"The coming election is an important one to the democratic party; not perhaps so much with regard to new issues involved, as rather as a test of the strength and vitality of the party."

We would prefer a test of the strength of principle. The strength of democracy has been sufficiently tested. We have seen that in proportion as it goes strong virtue, public faith, patriotism have grown weak. Corruption has grown fat and rampant. The people and their interests have been disregarded, and "democracy" has become equal to the task of electing "Barstow and the balance" in Wisconsin, and of passing Nebraska bills in Congress. This may not be the fault of the particular party, so much as it is the fault of all parties that are long enough in power to become corrupt. We venture to say that no party was ever organized but what would in the course of time, by long continuance in power, by the consciousness of strength, and that it could carry whatever measures it should please, become an oppressive and intolerable weight upon the people. Rogues always go over to the winning side. After a few triumphs, the trimmers join the victorious party. Such is the present condition of the democratic party.—Such will be the position of every party after so long a period of success. The only safety for the people is in an occasional change. They are becoming convinced of this, and the hoary humbug of "democracy" must be checked. It must pass through the purifying ordeal of defeat for a few years, before it can again become entitled to public confidence.—Madison Journal.

KANSAS.—At a recent meeting in the city of New York for the formation of an emigration "league," Mr. Eli Thayer gave a detailed account of the "Emigrant Aid Company." In the course of his remarks he stated that in spite of all the accounts that have been circulated to the contrary, not a single slaveholder in Missouri has yet moved his slaves into Kansas. None had, and had more than sufficient courage to stake out their claims. By the first of September, Mr. Thayer also stated, more than a thousand men, under the protection of the society, would be on their way to Kansas, to be followed until navigation closed by others in their track. These emigrants coming from free States would soon be there in sufficient numbers to control the states and keep a free territory. The company are now locating two cities, the situation of which will be made known in a few days, and will afford a favorable opportunity for the investment of capital.—Boston Atlas.

Those who talk of non-intervention for the purpose of freeing the administration from guilt in legislating slavery into Nebraska and Kansas by tearing away the Missouri compromise obstruction, are replied to as follows by the Syracuse Chronicle:

"When a farmer orders the fence taken down between his hog yard and corn field, he does not order the hogs into the corn—oh, no!"

By the way, why cannot the eastern mail be despatched from Madison by the morning instead of the evening train.—Sentinel.

We learn from the postmaster here that there is yet no contract for carrying the mails at all between here and Milwaukee. Whenever the contract is completed, or now, he will deliver the mails as they are called for. The railroad company ought to send for them so that they can go in the morning train. It would bring us 12 hours nearer Milwaukee. Our paper issued this afternoon does not get to Milwaukee till tomorrow evening, whereas they ought to get there to-morrow morning.—Madison Argus.

We took a turn round the country a few days ago, to see how the husbandman was progressing with his labors, and found them reaping an abundant harvest from their labors of the past year. All kinds of grain are better than common and have been secured in good order. All the hue and cry of loss by wind and flood was mostly imaginary. What particularly attracted our attention was some splendid orchards, in which were many trees loaded with fruit. One orchard that we noticed was a model of neatness and thrift.—Platteville American.

EATING TAINTED MEAT.—A family of Belgians, three miles east of Green Bay, lost five of their number, by a disease resembling cholera. The Advocate says it was brought on by eating tainted meat, and that the whole died within 24 hours after partaking of it.

Congressional Convention—Second District.
The electors of the second congressional district of Wisconsin, comprising the counties of Rock, Green, Dane, Iowa, Lafayette, Grant, Richland, Sauk, Adams, Portage, Marathon, Crawford, Bad Ax, La Crosse, Monroe, Polk, Pierce, Trempealeau, Elk, Chippewa, Clark, Dunn, Buffalo, St. Croix, Douglas and La Pointe, who are opposed to the Nebraska swindle, and in favor of the principles announced in the "Republican" platform, adopted at Madison July 18th, are invited to meet in their respective assembly districts and select two delegates from each to represent them in a congressional convention to be held at Mineral Point on Wednesday, the 18th of September, at 12 o'clock P. M., to nominate a candidate to be supported at the approaching election. By order of the state central committee, W. A. WHITE, Chairman.
—Madison, August 14.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.—We publish to-day the call of the central committee for a convention to be held at Mineral Point, September 18th, to nominate a candidate for congress in this congressional district, to be supported by all who oppose the Nebraska swindle. The call recommends the selection of two delegates from each assembly district. Of course, it is not to be expected that the delegation thus indicated will be full, but we hope it may be as nearly so as the circumstances of the case will possibly admit. It is important that the convention should embody the public sentiment of the entire district. The movement has commenced auspiciously, and if carried forward with the same spirit, and with the same determination that have characterized it thus far, we sincerely believe it cannot fail of success. The friends of the administration at first undertook to deride, laugh down and misrepresent the number and spirit of the Madison convention, but they have been willing to let that job out for some time past. They have found that there was too much earnestness in the movement, that it carried with it too much of the sympathy and approval of the people at large, to make any such disposal of it practicable. They also began to make some show of opposition to the leading issue presented by that convention; they have undertaken to endorse the Nebraska bill as a party measure, but they seem now to be trying to dodge the issue, and, if they can't keep still about it, to keep as still as they can. Are they to be trusted upon this question, even should they disclaim it as a party issue? Suppose they should, from motives of policy, nominate a man not committed for that measure, or if you please, committed against it, would the people of this congressional district be safe in reposing confidence in him. We think not, and we don't believe they are disposed to do it.

Iowa Election.—The returns thus far from Iowa look first rate. There is always danger in placing too much confidence in the first reports of elections, but the defeat of the administration party in that state seems now pretty certain. The Dubuque Tribune of Monday has returns from twenty-five counties in which seventeen anti-Nebraska candidates are elected to the general assembly, to only eight Nebraska candidates. Seventeen counties give Thornton 977 majority over Hempstead, for congress. The Tribune says:

In every county from which we have heard, (which cast its votes against us,) our opponents have dragged in some extraneous issue. On the mere naked question of the Nebraska swindle, we would have carried every county in the state, except Dubuque, in which is concentrated, and from which emanates all the local patronage of the general government. If democracy is defeated in Iowa, as appearances indicate, we know not in what northern state that party may look for success.

A SMASH UP.—A pair of horses attached to a carriage, and belonging to Mr. Uris Story, got loose yesterday on Main street, and started to run, but soon found a dray across their path. This they jumped entirely over, and were brought up against an awning post. The carriage struck the dray about "mid-ships" and turned it and the horse attached topsooty turvy in no time. No body hurt, and but little damage done.

Mr. Dockery is defeated and Mr. Badger will be re-elected. The Gazette will please stick a pin there.—Mil. News.

We will stick two into North Carolina if the News will stick one into Iowa.

ONE OF THE NATIVES.—There is a regular, live rattlesnake to be seen at the grocery store of A. K. Allen. His snakeship is a native of northern Wisconsin, is seventeen years old, measures six feet in length, four inches in circumference, and has fourteen "rattles." He is entirely harmless, his poisonous teeth having been very considerably extracted. He is a great curiosity in his way, and when stirred up, gives very delightful music upon "the bones."

A STRICKEN TOWN.—The Freeport Bulletin of the 10th inst., says that since the first of July there have been 74 deaths in that town, and 60 of these were from cholera. The number of cases which recovered are not given. Freeport has a population of three or four thousand.

Attention is directed to the insurance advertisement of C. C. Cheney. He has added several new companies to his list.

DEAD!—Hon. E. Ricker, of Manitowish, died of cholera on Friday last. He was a prominent citizen, served one term as county judge, and was a member of the legislature in 1852 and 1853. He was aged 33; emigrated to Manitowish in 1840. He leaves a wife and two lovely daughters to mourn his loss.—Madison Argus, 16th.

SUNK AGAIN.—The repairs on the railroad were completed last evening. Before however, the eastern train arrived the track "went under" again out of sight. It is worse now than it was before.—Id.

JANEVILLE, Aug. 18th, 1854.
MR. T. BOWMAN:
DEAR SIR:—In the first note addressed by me to you in the Gazette, I said I proposed to show that the Hon. David Noggle has perpetrated in the speech he delivered at Fulton, on the 4th of July last, a literary larceny.
In the extracts given from Mr. Chase's oration and my own, I think it will be apparent to you that he has done so. He claims (it is said) that the oration delivered upon the occasion when you were president of the day, had been pronounced by him at Beloit in 1840. This may be so; but is it not a strange coincidence that a gentleman residing in New York should filch from another in the then territory of Wisconsin, a fourth of July oration? And taking into consideration the fact that he has plagiarized from so humble an individual as myself, is it not fair to presume that the speech delivered at your place was an emanation from the brain of another, even though Mr. Chase may have stolen his address from some other gentleman? It is said in the streets, and confidently averred, that at the time when Mr. Noggle delivered his address in Beloit, in 1840, which he claims is substantially the same, as addressed to your people, it was then known that that address was not his own production. For the truth of this assertion I will not now vouch. But if the fact can be ascertained hereafter, you, and those before whom it was delivered, should be advised of the larceny.
But, Mr. Bowman, how will Mr. Noggle account for having filched from me? Will he say that we both have taken our thoughts and language from another? If he does, will it not place him as an orator and a gentleman in a very unenviable position? And without intending to be egotistical or boastful, I simply wish to say that I defy Mr. Noggle, or any other man, to produce any speech or oration from which I have taken that portion of his address which he has taken from mine. The thoughts therein contained perhaps are not new; but the language is my own. The extracts are placed side by side with each other, and you, or any other gentleman, cannot fail to perceive that most of the sentences are almost precisely identical.
I do not wish to abuse Mr. Noggle, but I merely wish to establish the proposition first made, that he had committed a literary larceny. To you and the community at large I leave the issue and ask your judgment.
Personally, I am unacquainted with you, and have addressed you simply because you were the president of the day on the occasion upon which Mr. Noggle's oration was delivered.
I ask your pardon for the liberty I have taken, and beg you to understand that the words "sordid eloquence," which I used in my first note, do not apply to any thing which Mr. Noggle has stolen from me.

Very respectfully,
JAMES ARMSTRONG.

P. S. Since the above was written, I have taken from the Wisconsin, published at Milwaukee, and of the date of Aug. 16th, 1854, the following article:
"A DOUBLE PLAGIARISM.—The Janesville Gazette publishes a communication placing side by side, portions of the fourth of July oration of R. C. R. Chase, delivered at Jay, and published in the Elizabethtown, Essex county, N. Y. Post, August 14, 1853, and that of David Noggle, delivered at Fulton, Rock county, Wisconsin, on the 4th of July, 1854, by which the latter gentleman is convicted of plagiarism, to a great extent. But this is not the best of the joke. The very oration of Mr. Chase, from which Mr. Noggle draws so liberally, is substantially the great oration delivered by Silas Wright, at Canton, N. Y., several years since. A friend recognizes the ideas, and in most places, the precise words of the great statesman, as pronounced by him and subsequently published; although he is sorry to see in many places, a shocking mutilation of the grand ideas and charming style of Mr. Wright, to cover up the slovenly track of Mr. Chase."

I have also seen a copy of the Rockford Star of 1840 in which that part of this speech which I have quoted, was published, and upon examining the files of "The Janesville Gazette," (if you have the curiosity to do so) you will find the same portion in a number of that paper dated August 1st, 1846, and again you find it in the Free Press of July 18th, A. D. 1851.
Even admitting it was his own production, what a precious prodigy, in his own estimation, it must have been—how paternally he must have hugged it to his bosom and kept it by his side—and how self-sacrificing he must have been to give it to the gaze of the world three times within the last fourteen years and within a circumference of thirty miles.
Should he hereafter have occasion to again favor the public with its republication, I would suggest that he save himself the trouble of re-writing it and the printers the annoyance of studying over a bungling manuscript by furnishing a printed copy.
J. A.

THE MISSOURI LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature is still in doubt. It is probable however that in point of numbers the whigs will be first, anti-Benton next, and Benton democrats last. One thing is certain that the Benton democrats will hold the balance of power, and Atol cannot be re-elected. Edward Bates is, and was opposed to a repeal of the Missouri compromise, and it is possible that he may be returned by Benton's friends in conjunction with liberal whigs.—Wisconsin.

MILLER'S STEAM BRIDGE is the name of an invention recently applied to railroad cars. On the Pontiac road, it stopped a train running 40 miles an hour, in 18 seconds, in a distance of 500 feet, the engine not being reversed! It consists of an iron steam-pipe under the cars, the connections between the cars being made with pipes of gutta percha. The railroad men think it practicable.

A PRISONER FOR DEBT FOR THIRTY-NINE YEARS.—A man named William Miller was imprisoned in Winchester, England, half thirty-nine years ago, since which time he remained closely immured, spending the last three years and eight months in solitary confinement. His only crime was a debt of $600.

CHOLERA IN THE EAST.—The cholera is prevailing at the present time to a very considerable extent, in our sister city of Racine. Whilst we have been suffering heretofore, Racine has been in a measure exempt; but the deadly infection, it appears, is disposed to show no partiality. We have heard of no cases in our city for a number of days past, and we trust, have heard the last of it for this season, at least.—Kenosha Tel.

Assessors of the several towns are referred to the session laws of 1854, sec. 2, chap. 13, page 89, which reads as follows:
"It shall be the duty of the assessor, or assessors, authorized by law, to assess taxable property for state, county and town purposes, in each town or in each ward, or city, or incorporated village in this state, to furnish to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county in which such town, city or incorporated village may be, on or before the first day of August in each year, the original assessment roll complete, on real and personal property in said town, ward, city, or incorporated village, as made by said assessor or assessors, for the year in which such assessment is made. If such assessor shall fail or refuse to furnish such assessment roll as above provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable in a sum not less than ten, nor more than fifty dollars."
As the laws were not to be seen till about the first of August, we presume no fine will be exacted for any failure or refusal to comply with the legal requirements.—Grant County Herald.
We don't know as this matter possesses any interest for any body in this county, but if it does we publish it for their information.

THE FREE DEMOCRAT says it is informed that the Milwaukee and Watertown railroad "has violated the contract with Bishop, Stewart & Co., and thus have refused themselves to go on with the contract. The company are in arrears, we understand, to Bishop, Stewart & Co., two estimates."

THE GREAT DROUGHT of '51.—The New York Tribune estimates the loss by the present great drought which is afflicting this country, at one hundred millions, and the loss of New York state alone, at twenty millions. One hundred millions is probably a low estimate for the whole country. Every day brings intelligence of the extent of the drought, which is much greater than is generally supposed. Some few localities have been visited with rains, but they have produced but little beneficial effect, owing to the absence of dew, and the dryness of the atmosphere. Food will be scarce and dear in this country for a year to come, and it becomes all persons to husband their resources, and practice rigid economy. Our country is so wide, and our resources so great, that there will be no absolute want, no famine, but prices will rule high, and the poor will need more than ever the sustaining hand of charity.—Chicago Dem.

MISSOURI MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.—John G. Miller and Gilchrist Porter, Luther M. Kennett, M. Oliver, Sam Caruthers and J. G. Lindley—all whigs—are re-elected. They all belong to the slavery-extending school of the whig party.—Wisconsin of Saturday.

No they don't. Mr. Porter, for one, took hold and open ground against the Nebraska inquiry, so much so that the Anzeiger, the German organ in St. Louis, urged every German democrat in his district to vote for Mr. Porter as a "freeminded man, in favor of the cause of progress, and strongly opposed to the Nebraska bill."

Mr. Lindley, if we mistake not, agrees in sentiment with Mr. Porter.—Mil. Sent.

A party of ladies and gentlemen, while riding out in Roxbury (Mass.) in direction of Dorchester on Friday last, took a cross road and came upon the borders of a small pond surrounded by trees. A large Newfoundland dog belonging to one of the gentlemen, could not resist the inviting coolness of the water, and plunged in. After swimming about for some time, enjoying himself hugely, he stopped suddenly at a particular spot; from that he began to swim round and round, making a circle smaller, when he dived beneath the surface, reappearing, however, speedily, bearing in his mouth the naked body of an infant. Swimming ashore with his prize, he shook himself to free the superfluous water from his shaggy front. The shaking separated the head of the infant from the body, and it immediately sunk; the headless trunk was brought ashore, and laid carefully on the grass. The ladies were much excited, and one in particular, was excessively agitated. The body was in an advanced state of decomposition.—The affair is a mysterious one.

RUSSIAN FORTRESSES.—Admiral Napier has written home that neither Cronstadt nor Swenborg can be taken with the most powerful fleet ever gathered together. He says:

"It has not been in my power to do anything with this powerful fleet, but attacking either Cronstadt or Swenborg, would have been certain destruction."
Vice Admiral Chads also writes:
"After two day's inspections from the light-house, and full views of the forts and ships, the former are too substantial for the fire of ships to make any impression. They are like masses of granite. With respect to an attack on the ships (Russians) where they are, it is not to be entertained."

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—Our attention has been called by the teller of Commercial Bank, to a dangerous counterfeit which has just made its appearance, on the Oneida Valley Bank. It is a five dollar bill, paper rather thin and flimsy, and though the engraving is very fairly done, there is rather a pale appearance to the bill.—The coat of arms of the state of New York, on the upper left hand corner, on close examination will be found to be imperfect. The imprint of Rawdon, Wright, Hatch & Edson, New York, will also be found not to be regular and straight. Persons will do well to refuse all fives on this bank unless they are familiar with the genuine.—Chicago Democrat, Monday.

We learn just as our paper goes to press, this morning, that during the thunder shower of last Friday night a man named Merchant, residing a mile south of Winnebago station, and four of his children were killed instantly by a stroke of lightning. The father, mother, and five children (comprising the whole family) were lying upon the floor in a bed together, and the mother and one child only escaped alive. This was truly a terrible visitation.—Rockford Democrat, Thursday.

RAISING THE ERIE.—The remnant of the hull of the steamer Erie, burned off Silver creek, thirteen years ago on Thursday last, was towed into port last evening. The engine and valves found on board had been previously removed. She is the hardest wreck we ever saw, and can be of no use, unless it be for the iron that holds her together. Rumor says that some $1500 in silver coin was found, besides a large quantity of gold, silver and copper in a melted state.—Buff. Rep., 12th.

We are informed that the cholera is prevailing at the present time to a very considerable extent, in our sister city of Racine. Whilst we have been suffering heretofore, Racine has been in a measure exempt; but the deadly infection, it appears, is disposed to show no partiality. We have heard of no cases in our city for a number of days past, and we trust, have heard the last of it for this season, at least.—Kenosha Tel.

WHAT THE NORTH MUST NEXT SUBMIT TO.—The southern papers are agitating the question of re-opening the external slave trade. Their chief arguments are as follows: The Germans and Irish are flooding the northern states; they are little better, wiser or more patriotic than negroes; to balance their influence and power, the slave states must also import laborers to offset the German and Irish emigrants who do not settle among slaves. They argue the inconsistency of contending for slavery as a divine, beneficent and republican institution, yet live under a law of congress making it piracy to import slaves from Africa. They go into long arguments to prove that the north is hastening into slavery by reason of the laboring masses having control of the ballot box; that we are a set of incendiaries having our ranks constantly recruited by the rabble of Europe, to whom exciting appeals are made in the name of liberty.
It is consistently contended by those who affect to be dissatisfied with the late acts of congress, yet cry for peace and acquiescence,—that "this is the last surrender" they are going to make to the south—never will they submit again, &c.—Now here is another negro question glimmering through the fence in the shape of re-opening the external slave trade. That may be shoved through, and a new dissatisfaction will follow; then the dough-faces will blubber again and mutter "peace and submission." Then Cuba annexation, South America, and the Mosquito Kingdom! what else God knows. Still "peace and submission!" Never by the eternal can the high-spirited, honorable man more proclaim "peace and submission." "Repeal" is the word. Demagogues, it is expected, will be for peace.—They would submit to the Spanishquisition.
We once submitted to the yoke—the fugitive slave law, and urged "peace and submission." It was the last, and we have repeated a thousand times we ever swallowed that infamous morsel.

Upon the opening of the external slave trade, negroes will be hussled into the United States, as if Africa had swallowed all the quick doctors and cathartic pills in America. Negroes will be imported for every kind of use, even for making sausages and working in harness. All the while this importation of animal locomotion of doubtful race, as to whether man or beast, is going on, we are to be frightened into "peace and submission." That old charge, abolition—the standing panacea to coerce submission to every wrong, will be doctored out feely. Fools will deal freely in the nostrum, cowards will quail and brave men will resent like spoiled children.—Grant County Herald.

PARTY VS. PRINCIPLE.—The last number of the La Crosse Democrat devotes nearly two columns to showing the evil which will result from "democrats" leaving their old party for the sake of principle at the coming election. It begins thus:
"The coming election is an important one to the democratic party; not perhaps so much with regard to new issues involved, as rather as a test of the strength and vitality of the party."

We would prefer a test of the strength of principle. The strength of democracy has been sufficiently tested. We have seen that in proportion as it goes strong virtue, public faith, patriotism have grown weak. Corruption has grown fat and rampant. The people and their interests have been disregarded, and "democracy" has become equal to the task of electing "Barstow and the balance" in Wisconsin, and of passing Nebraska bills in Congress. This may not be the fault of the particular party, so much as it is the fault of all parties that are long enough in power to become corrupt. We venture to say that no party was ever organized but what would in the course of time, by long continuance in power, by the consciousness of strength, and that it could carry whatever measures it should please, become an oppressive and intolerable weight upon the people. Rogues always go over to the winning side. After a few triumphs, the trimmers join the victorious party. Such is the present condition of the democratic party.—Such will be the position of every party after so long a period of success. The only safety for the people is in an occasional change. They are becoming convinced of this, and the hoary humbug of "democracy" must be checked. It must pass through the purifying ordeal of defeat for a few years, before it can again become entitled to public confidence.—Madison Journal.

KANSAS.—At a recent meeting in the city of New York for the formation of an emigration "league," Mr. Eli Thayer gave a detailed account of the "Emigrant Aid Company." In the course of his remarks he stated that in spite of all the accounts that have been circulated to the contrary, not a single slaveholder in Missouri has yet moved his slaves into Kansas. None had, and had more than sufficient courage to stake out their claims. By the first of September, Mr. Thayer also stated, more than a thousand men, under the protection of the society, would be on their way to Kansas, to be followed until navigation closed by others in their track. These emigrants coming from free States would soon be there in sufficient numbers to control the states and keep a free territory. The company are now locating two cities, the situation of which will be made known in a few days, and will afford a favorable opportunity for the investment of capital.—Boston Atlas.

Those who talk of non-intervention for the purpose of freeing the administration from guilt in legislating slavery into Nebraska and Kansas by tearing away the Missouri compromise obstruction, are replied to as follows by the Syracuse Chronicle:
"When a farmer orders the fence taken down between his hog yard and corn field, he does not order the hogs into the corn—oh, no!"

By the way, why cannot the eastern mail be despatched from Madison by the morning instead of the evening train.—Sentinel.

We learn from the postmaster here that there is yet no contract for carrying the mails at all between here and Milwaukee. Whenever the contract is completed, or now, he will deliver the mails as they are called for. The railroad company ought to send for them so that they can go in the morning train. It would bring us 12 hours nearer Milwaukee. Our paper issued this afternoon does not get to Milwaukee till tomorrow evening, whereas they ought to get there to-morrow morning.—Madison Argus.

We took a turn round the country a few days ago, to see how the husbandman was progressing with his labors, and found them reaping an abundant harvest from their labors of the past year. All kinds of grain are better than common and have been secured in good order. All the hue and cry of loss by wind and flood was mostly imaginary. What particularly attracted our attention was some splendid orchards, in which were many trees loaded with fruit. One orchard that we noticed was a model of neatness and thrift.—Platteville American.

EATING TAINTED MEAT.—A family of Belgians, three miles east of Green Bay, lost five of their number, by a disease resembling cholera. The Advocate says it was brought on by eating tainted meat, and that the whole died within 24 hours after partaking of it.

Congressional Convention—Second District.

The electors of the second congressional district of Wisconsin, comprising the counties of Rock, Green, Dane, Iowa, Lafayette, Grant, Richland, Sauk, Adams, Portage, Marathon, Crawford, Bad Ax, La Crosse, Monroe, Polk, Pierce, Trempealeau, Elk, Chippewa, Clark, Dunn, Buffalo, St. Croix, Douglas and La Pointe, who are opposed to the Nebraska inquiry, and in favor of the principles announced in the "Republican" platform, adopted at Madison July 18th, are invited to meet in their respective assembly districts and select two delegates from each to represent them in a congressional convention to be held at Mineral Point on Wednesday, the 18th of September, at 12 o'clock P.M., to nominate a candidate to be supported at the approaching election. By order of the state central committee, WM. A. WHITE, Chairman.

Madison, August 14.

CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.—We publish to-day the call of the central committee for a convention to be held at Mineral Point, September 13th, to nominate a candidate for congress in this congressional district, to be supported by all who oppose the Nebraska swindle. The call recommends the selection of two delegates from each assembly district. Of course, it is not to be expected that the delegation thus indicated will be full, but we hope it may be as nearly so as the circumstances of the case will possibly admit. It is important that the convention should embody the public sentiment of the entire district. The movement has commenced auspiciously, and if carried forward with the same spirit, and with the same determination that has characterized it thus far, we sincerely believe it cannot fail of success. The friends of the administration at first undertook to deride, laugh down and misrepresent the number and spirit of the Madison convention, but they have been willing to let that job out for some time past. They have found that there was too much earnestness in the movement, that it carried with it too much of the sympathy and approval of the people at large, to make any such disposal of it practicable. They also began to make some show of opposition to the leading issue presented by that convention; they have undertaken to endorse the Nebraska bill as a party measure, but they seem now to be trying to dodge the issue, and, if they can't keep still about it, to keep as still as they can. Are they to be trusted upon this question, even should they disclaim it as a party issue? Suppose they should, from motives of policy, nominate a man not committed for that measure, or if you please, committed against it, would the people of this congressional district be safe in reposing confidence in him. We think not, and we don't believe they are disposed to do it.

IOWA ELECTION.—The returns thus far from Iowa look first rate. There is always danger in placing too much confidence in the first reports of elections, but the defeat of the administration party in that state seems now pretty certain. The Dubuque Tribune of Monday has returns from twenty-five counties in which seventeen anti-Nebraska candidates are elected to the general assembly, to only eight Nebraska candidates. Seventeen counties give Thornton 977 majority over Hempstead, for congress. The Tribune says:

In every county from which we have heard, (which cast its votes against us,) our opponents have dragged in some extraneous issue. On the mere naked question of the Nebraska swindle, we would have carried every county in the state, except Dubuque, in which is concentrated, and from which emanates all the local patronage of the general government.

If democracy is defeated in Iowa, as appearances indicate, we know not in what northern state that party may look for success.

A SMASH UP.—A pair of horses attached to a carriage, and belonging to Mr. Urias Story, got loose yesterday on Main street, and started to run, but soon found a dray across their path. This they jumped entirely over, and were brought up against an awning post. The carriage struck the dray about "midships" and turned it and the horse attached topsy turvy in no time. No body hurt, and but little damage done.

Mr. Dockery is defeated and Mr. Badger will be re-elected. The Gazette will please stick a pin there.—Mil. News.

We will stick two into North Carolina if the News will stick one into Iowa.

ONE OF THE NATIVES.—There is a regular, live rattlesnake to be seen at the grocery store of A. K. Allen. His snakeship is a native of northern Wisconsin, is seventeen years old, measures six feet in length, four inches in circumference, and has fourteen "rattles." He is entirely harmless, his poisonous teeth having been very considerably extracted. He is a great curiosity in his way, and when stirred up, gives very delightful music upon "the bones."

A STRUCKEN TOWN.—The Freeport Bulletin of the 10th inst., says that since the first of July there have been 74 deaths in that town, and 50 of these were from cholera. The number of cases which recovered are not given. Freeport has a population of three or four thousand.

Attention is directed to the insurance advertisement of C. C. Cheney. He has added several new companies to his list.

DEAD!—Hon. E. Ricker, of Manitowoc, died of cholera on Friday last. He was a prominent citizen, served one term as county judge, and was a member of the legislature in 1852 and 1853. He was aged 33; emigrated to Manitowoc in 1846. He leaves a wife and two lovely daughters to mourn his loss.—Madison Argus, 16th.

SUNK AGAIN.—The repairs on the railroad were completed last evening. Before however, the eastern train arrived the track "went under" again out of sight. It is worse now than it was before.—Id.

JANESVILLE, Aug. 18th, 1854.

MR. T. BOWMAN.
DEAR SIR:—In the first note addressed by me to you in the Gazette, I said I proposed to show that the Hon. David Nogglo had perpetrated in the speech he delivered at Fulton, on the 4th of July last, a literary larceny.

In the extracts given from Mr. Chase's oration and my own, I think it will be apparent to you that he has done so. He claims (it is said) that the oration delivered upon the occasion when you were president of the day, had been pronounced by him at Beloit in 1840. This may be so; but is it not a strange coincidence that a gentleman residing in New York should filch from another in the then territory of Wisconsin, a fourth of July oration? And taking into consideration the fact that he has plagiarized from so humble an individual as myself, is it not fair to presume that the speech delivered at your place was an emanation from the brain of another, even though Mr. Chase may have stolen his address from some other gentleman? It is said in the streets, and confidently averred, that at the time when Mr. Nogglo delivered his address in Beloit, in 1840, which he claims is substantially the same, as addressed to your people, it was then known that that address was not his own production. For the truth of this assertion I will not now vouch. But if the fact can be ascertained hereafter, you, and those before whom it was delivered, shall be advised of the larceny.

But, Mr. Bowman, how will Mr. Nogglo account for having filched from me? Will he say that we both have taken our thoughts and language from another? If he does, will it not place him as an orator and a gentleman in a very unenviable position? And without intending to be egotistical or boastful, I simply wish to say that I defy Mr. Nogglo, or any other man, to produce any speech or oration from which I have taken that portion of his address which he has taken from mine. The thoughts therein contained perhaps are not new; but the language is my own. The extracts are placed side by side with each other, and you, or any other gentleman, cannot fail to perceive that most of the sentences are almost precisely identical.

I do not wish to abuse Mr. Nogglo, but I merely wish to establish the proposition first made, that he had committed a literary larceny. To you and the community at large I leave the issue and ask your judgment.

Personally, I am unacquainted with you, and have addressed you simply because you were the president of the day on the occasion upon which Mr. Nogglo's oration was delivered.

I ask your pardon for the liberty I have taken, and beg you to understand that the words "fervid eloquence," which I used in my first note, do not apply to any thing which Mr. Nogglo has stolen from me.

Very respectfully,
JAMES ARMSTRONG.

P. S. Since the above was written, I have taken from the Wisconsin, published at Milwaukee, and of the date of Aug. 16th, 1854, the following article:

"A DOUBLE PLAGIARISM.—The Janesville Gazette publishes a communication placing side by side, portions of the fourth of July oration of R. C. Chase, delivered at Jay, and published in the Elizabethtown, Essex county, N. Y. Post, August 14, 1853, and that of David Nogglo, delivered at Fulton, Rock county, Wisconsin, on the 4th of July, 1854, by which the latter gentleman is convicted of plagiarism, to a great extent. But this is not the best of the joke. The very oration of Mr. Chase, from which Mr. Nogglo draws so liberally, is substantially the great oration delivered by Silas Wright, at Canton, N. Y., several years since. A friend recognizes the ideas, and in most places, the precise words of the great statesman, as pronounced by him and subsequently published; although he is sorry to see in many places, a shocking mutilation of the grand ideas and charming style of Mr. Wright, to cover up the slovenly track of Mr. Chase."

I have also seen a copy of the Rockford Star of 1840 in which that part of this speech which I have quoted, was published, and upon examining the files of "The Janesville Gazette," (if you have the curiosity to do so) you will find the same portion in a number of that paper dated August 1st, 1846, and again you find it in the Free Press of July 18th, A. D. 1854.

Even admitting it was his own production, what a precious prodigy, in his own estimation, it must have been—how paternally he must have hugged it to his bosom and kept it by his side—and how self-sacrificing he must have been to give it to the gaze of the world three times within the last fourteen years and within a circumference of thirty miles.

Should he hereafter have occasion to again favor the public with its republication, I would suggest that he save himself the trouble of re-writing it and the printers the annoyance of studying over a bungling manuscript by furnishing a printed copy.

THE MISSOURI LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature is still in doubt. It is probable however that in point of numbers the whigs will be first, anti-Benton next, and Benton democrats last.—One thing is certain that the Benton democrats will hold the balance of power, and Ate cannot be re-elected. Edward Bates is, and was opposed to a repeal of the Missouri compromise, and it is possible that he may be returned by Benton's friends in conjunction with liberal whigs.—Wisconsin.

MILLER'S STEAM ENGINE.—The name of an invention recently applied to railroad cars. On the Pontiac road, it stopped a train running 30 miles an hour, in 18 seconds, in a distance of 500 feet, the engine not being reversed! It consists of an iron steam-pipe under the cars, the connections between the cars being made with pipes of gutta percha. The railroad men think it practicable.

A PRISONER FOR DEBT FOR THIRTY-NINE YEARS.—A man named William Miller was imprisoned in Winchester, England, jail thirty-nine years ago, since which time he remained closely immured, spending the last three years and eight months in solitary confinement. His only crime was a debt of $600.

Assessors of the several towns are referred to the session laws of 1854, sec. 2, chap. 13, page 89, which reads as follows:

"It shall be the duty of the assessor, or assessors, authorized by law, to assess taxable property for state, county and town purposes, in each town or in each ward, or city, or incorporated village in this state, to furnish to the clerk of the board of supervisors of the county in which such town, city or incorporated village may be, on or before the first day of August in each year, the original assessment roll complete, on real and personal property in said town, ward, city, or incorporated village, as made by said assessor or assessors, for the year in which such assessment is made. If such assessor shall fail or refuse to furnish such assessment roll as above provided, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable in a sum not less than ten, nor more than fifty dollars."

As the laws were not to be seen till about the first of August, we presume no fine will be exacted for any failure or refusal to comply with the legal requirements.—Grant County Herald.

We don't know as this matter possesses any interest for any body in this county, but if it does we publish it for their information.

THE FREE DEMOCRAT says it is informed that the Milwaukee and Watertown railroad "has violated the contract with Bishop, Stewart & Co., and thus have refused themselves to go on with the contract. The company are in arrears, we understand, to Bishop, Stewart & Co., two estimates."

THE GREAT DROUGHT OF '54.—The New York Tribune estimates the loss by the present great drought which is afflicting this country, at one hundred millions, and the loss of New York state alone, at twenty millions. One hundred millions is probably a low estimate for the whole country. Every day brings intelligence of the extent of the drought, which is much greater than is generally supposed. Some few localities have been visited with rains, but they have produced but little beneficial effect, owing to the absence of dews, and the dryness of the atmosphere. Food will be scarce and dear in this country for a year to come, and it becomes all persons to husband their resources, and practice rigid economy. Our country is so wide, and our resources so great, that there will be no absolute want, no famine, but prices will rule high, and the poor will need more than ever the sustaining hand of charity.—Chicago Dem.

MISSOURI MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.—John G. Miller and Gilchrist Porter, Luther M. Kennett, M. Oliver, Sam. Caruthers and J. G. Lindley—all whigs—are re-elected. They all belong to the slavery-extending school of the whig party.—Wisconsin of Saturday.

No they don't. Mr. Porter, for one, took bold and open ground against the Nebraska inquiry, so much so that the Anzeiger, the German organ in St. Louis, urged every German democrat in his district to vote for Mr. Porter as a "freeminded man, in favor of the cause of progress, and strongly opposed to the Nebraska bill."

Mr. Lindley, if we mistake not, agrees in sentiment with Mr. Porter.—Mil. Sent.

A party of ladies and gentlemen, while riding out in Roxbury (Mass.) in direction of Dorchester on Friday last, took a cross road and came upon the borders of a small pond surrounded by trees. A large Newfoundland dog belonging to one of the gentlemen, could not resist the inviting coolness of the water, and plunged in. After swimming about for some time, enjoying himself hugely, he stopped suddenly at a particular spot; from that he began to swim round and round, making a circle smaller, when he dived beneath the surface, reappearing, however, speedily, bearing in his mouth the naked body of an infant. Swimming ashore with his prize, he shook himself to free the superfluous water from his shaggy front. The shanking separated the head of the infant from the body, and it immediately sunk; the headless trunk was brought ashore, and laid carefully on the grass. The ladies were much excited, and one in particular, was excessively agitated. The body was in an advanced state of decomposition.—The affair is a mysterious one.

RUSSIAN FORTRESSES.—Admiral Napier has written home that neither Cronstadt nor Sveaborg can be taken with the most powerful fleet ever gathered together. He says:

"It has not been in my power to do anything with this powerful fleet, but attacking either Cronstadt or Sveaborg, would have been certain destruction."

Vice Admiral Chads, also writes:

"After two days' inspections from the light-house, and full views of the forts and ships, the former are too substantial for the fire of ships to make any impression. They are like masses of granite. With respect to an attack on the ships (Russians) where they are, it is not to be entertained."

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—Our attention has been called by the teller of Commercial Bank, to a dangerous counterfeit which has just made its appearance, on the Onondaga Valley Bank. It is a five dollar bill, paper rather thin and flimsy, and though the engraving is very fairly done, there is rather a pale appearance to the bill.—The coat of arms of the state of New York, on the upper left hand corner, on close examination will be found to be imperfect. The imprint of Rawdon, Wright, Hatch & Edson, New York, will also be found not to be regular and straight. Persons will do well to refuse all fives on this bank unless they are familiar with the genuine.—Chicago Democrat, Monday.

We learn just as our paper goes to press, this morning, that during the thunder shower of last Friday night a man named Merchant, residing a mile south of Winnebago station, and four of his children were killed instantly by a stroke of lightning. The father, mother, and five children (comprising the whole family) were lying upon the floor in a bed together, and the mother and one child only escaped alive. This was truly a terrible visitation.—Rockford Democrat, Thursday.

RAISING THE ERIE.—The remnant of the hull of the steamer Erie, burned off Silver creek, thirteen years ago on Thursday last, was towed into port last evening. The engine and valves found on board had been previously removed. She is the hardest wreck we ever saw, and can be of no use, unless it be for the iron that holds her together. Rumor says that some $1500 in silver coin was found, besides a large quantity of gold, silver and copper in a melted state.—Buff. Rep., 12th.

We are informed that the cholera is prevailing at the present time to a very considerable extent, in our sister city of Racine. Whilst we have been suffering heretofore, Racine has been in a measure exempt; but the deadly infection, it appears, is disposed to show no partiality. We have heard of no cases in our city for a number of days past, and we trust, have heard the last of it for this season, at least.—Kenosha Tel.

WHAT THE NORTH MUST NEXT SUBMIT TO.—The southern papers are agitating the question of re-opening the external slave trade. Their chief arguments are as follows: The Germans and Irish are flooding the northern states; they are idle better, wiser or more patriotic than negroes; to balance their influence and power, the slave states must also import laborers to offset the German and Irish emigrants who do not settle among slaves. They argue the inconsistency of contending for slavery as a divine, benevolent and republican institution, yet live under a law of congress making it piracy to import slaves from Africa. They go into long arguments to prove that the north is hastening into slavery by reason of the laboring masses having control of the ballot box; that we are a set of incendiaries having our ranks constantly recruited by the rabble of Europe, to whom exciting appeals are made in the name of liberty.

It is ceaselessly contended by those who affect to be disabused with the late acts of congress, yet cry for peace and acquiescence,—that "this is the last surrender" they are going to make to the south—never will they submit again, &c.—Now here is another negro question glimmering through the fence in the shape of re-opening the external slave trade. That may be shored through, and a new dissatisfaction will follow; then the dough-faces will blubber again and mutter "peace and submission." Then Cuba annexation, South America, and the Mosquito Kingdom! What else God knows. Still "peace and submission!" Never by the eternal can high-spirited, honorable man prove proclaim "peace and submission." "Repeal" is the word. Demagogues, it is expected, will be for peace.—They would submit to the Spanish inquisition.—We once submitted to the yoke—the fugitive slave law, and urged "peace and submission." It was the last, and we have repeated a thousand times we ever swallowed that infamous morsel.

Upon the opening of the external slave trade, negroes will be huddled into the United States, as if Africa had swallowed all the quack doctors and cathartic pills in America. Negroes will be imported for every kind of use, even for making sausages and working in harness. All the while this importation of annual locomotion of doubtful race, as to whether man or beast, is going on, we are to be frightened into "peace and submission." That old charge, abolition,—the standing panacea to coerce submission to every wrong, will be dosed out freely. Fools will deal freely in the nostrum, cowards will quail and brave men will resent like spoiled children.—Grant County Herald.

PARTY VS. PRINCIPLE.—The last number of the La Crosse Democrat devotes nearly two columns to showing the evil which will result from "democrats" leaving their old party for the sake of principle at the coming election. It begins thus:

"The coming election is an important one to the democratic party; not perhaps so much with regard to new issues involved, as rather as a test of the strength and vitality of the party."

We would prefer a test of the strength of principle. The strength of democracy has been sufficiently tested. We have seen that in proportion as it goes strong virtue, public faith, patriotism have grown weak. Corruption has grown fat and rampant. The people and their interests have been disregarded, and "democracy" has become equal to the task of electing "Barstow and the balance" in Wisconsin, and of passing Nebraska bills in Congress. This may not be the fault of the particular party, so much as it is the fault of all parties that are long enough in power to become corrupt. We venture to say that no party was ever organized but what would in the course of time, by long continuance in power, by the consciousness of strength, and that it could carry whatever measures it should please, become an oppressive and intolerable weight upon the people. Rogues always go over to the winning side. After a few triumphs, the trimmers join the victorious party. Such is the present condition of the democratic party.—Such will be the position of every party after so long a period of success. The only safety for the people is in an occasional change. They are becoming convinced of this, and the hoary humbug of "democracy" must be checked. It must pass through the purifying ordeal of defeat for a few years, before it can again become entitled to public confidence.—Madison Journal.

KANSAS.—At a recent meeting in the city of New York for the formation of an emigration "league," Mr. Eli Thayer gave a detailed account of the "Emigrant Aid Company." In the course of his remarks he stated that in spite of all the accounts that have been circulated to the contrary, not a single slaveholder in Missouri has yet moved his slaves into Kansas. None had, as yet, had more than sufficient courage to stake out their claims. By the first of September, Mr. Thayer also stated, more than a thousand men, under the protection of the society, would be on their way to Kansas, to be followed until navigation closed by others in their track. These emigrants coming from free States would soon be in sufficient numbers to control the states and keep a free territory. The company of which will be made known in a few days, and will afford a favorable opportunity for the investment of capital.—Boston Atlas.

Those who talk of non-intervention for the purpose of freeing the administration from guilt in legislating slavery into Nebraska and Kansas by tearing away the Missouri compromise obstruction, are replied to as follows by the Syncope Chronicle:

"When a farmer orders the fence taken down between his hog yard and corn field, he does not order the hogs into the corn—oh, no!"

By the way, why cannot the eastern mail be despatched from Madison by the morning instead of the evening train.—Sentinel.

We learn from the postmaster here that there is yet no contract for carrying the mails at all between here and Milwaukee. Whenever the contract is completed, or now, he will deliver the mails as they are called for. The railroad company ought to send for them so that they can go in the morning train. It would bring us 12 hours nearer Milwaukee. Our paper issued this afternoon does not get to Milwaukee till tomorrow evening, whereas they ought to get there to-morrow morning.—Madison Argus.

We took a turn round the country a few days ago, to see how the husbandman was progressing with his labors, and found them reaping an abundant harvest from their labors of the past year. All kinds of grain are better than common and have been secured in good order. All the hue and cry of loss by wind and flood was mostly imaginary. What particularly attracted our attention was some splendid orchards, in which were many trees loaded with fruit. One orchard that we noticed was a model of neatness and thrift.—Platteville American.

NEW GOODS!
$15,000 Worth of
BOOTS AND SHOES
 JUST RECEIVED AT THE Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Jacksonville, and what is finer than all the rest. I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advantage in the price of the raw material.

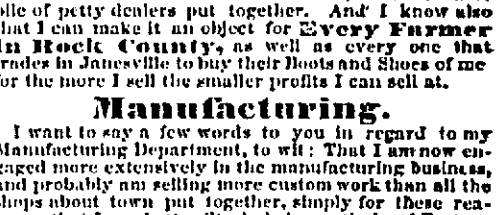

Ladies Fine Shoes,

In particular, I have no hesitation in saying, cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding as to the style and quality of the material, that if worn, they will be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt, that I can show you on a finer assortment, and at better prices by twentyive per cent. than can be found at any of the shoe shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole ons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern nange, which every one knows is worth twenty-five cent more than the common western tanned leath-

r; and what is a better reason and of greater impor-
ance, I can
Sell my Custom Work at Much Lower Prices, and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must allow for very selfishly, and that is, because

"I want to state further that I have secured the services of Mr. Beckingham, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the river, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you

Leather and Findings.
I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather—also, a very large assortment of PRESH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and PRESH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCO of every kind, which I will sell at Extremely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of HIKINGS of BINDERS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlars.

TO THE LADIES,
I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring our understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my short-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared

Get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates.
Yours respectfully,
J. B. DISNOCK, Proprietor,
